

21st January, 1958.

My dear Julian,

I was away in the States at the time of the New Year's honours list, in which I am delighted to hear your name is included for a knighthood. This will be indeed a satisfaction to all your friends, and an additional honour to the credit of evolutionary biology. We all feel strongly how much you have done to clarify this field.

Sincerely yours,