

SOURCES OF RADIANT ENERGY

LECTURE BY PROFESSOR HICKS

In the course of a public lecture, given under the auspices of the Workers' Educational Association at the Adelaide Technical School, on Tuesday, the 26th ult., North-east on Tuesday night. ... From the eggs which were laid by the bird, from him, from his eggs, he obtained the strength necessary to our limbs, in which it is contained in the form of organic matter. ... One of the salient features of everyday life is growth, both physical and mental. ... The strange process of digestion was the fundamental process in all living things. ... Professor Hicks went on, it must be fully realized that they were dealing strictly with the physical side of the question. ... The strange process of digestion was the fundamental process in all living things. ... Professor Hicks went on, it must be fully realized that they were dealing strictly with the physical side of the question. ... The strange process of digestion was the fundamental process in all living things.

LL.D., 1897. Dr. Richards was appointed a King's Counsel on September 8, 1921, and was elevated to the position of Acting Judge in March, 1925, when he was appointed to the position of full Judge on his return to Adelaide. ... He was appointed second associate, and later associate to the Chief Justice and Clerk of Arraigns to the Supreme Court. ... In June, 1911, he was placed in charge of the legal work of the Lands Titles Department, and shortly afterwards was given the Membership of the Supreme Court. ... He was appointed second associate, and later associate to the Chief Justice and Clerk of Arraigns to the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court Master. Major Stuart is a very popular member of the Civil Service of South Australia. He was noted for courtesy in all his dealings with the public. ... Major Stuart is a very popular member of the Civil Service of South Australia. He was noted for courtesy in all his dealings with the public. ... Major Stuart is a very popular member of the Civil Service of South Australia. He was noted for courtesy in all his dealings with the public.

REG. 24-3-27 FIFTY YEARS AGO.

From the Register, Thursday, March 26, 1877.

Five of the vacancies in the council of the Adelaide University caused by the resignation of the Hon. J. H. ... The Registrar, Thursday, March 26, 1877.

REG. 24-3-27 A WORLD TRIP.

Return of Sir Douglas Mawson.

After a world tour, extending over eight months, Sir Douglas Mawson (Professor of Geology at the Adelaide University), and Lady Mawson, returned to Adelaide by the express on Wednesday. ... After a world tour, extending over eight months, Sir Douglas Mawson (Professor of Geology at the Adelaide University), and Lady Mawson, returned to Adelaide by the express on Wednesday.

the language was to the average citizen what English was to the Englishman. ... The language was to the average citizen what English was to the Englishman. ... The language was to the average citizen what English was to the Englishman.

Australian Eucalypts. Sir Douglas, added Sir Douglas was very short of timber and it was "fearing" ... Australian Eucalypts. Sir Douglas, added Sir Douglas was very short of timber and it was "fearing" ... Australian Eucalypts. Sir Douglas, added Sir Douglas was very short of timber and it was "fearing".

Call of the Antarctic.

On his return, Sir Douglas travelled by way of Cape Horn to the Antarctic. ... On his return, Sir Douglas travelled by way of Cape Horn to the Antarctic. ... On his return, Sir Douglas travelled by way of Cape Horn to the Antarctic.

ADV. 24-3-27 SIR DOUGLAS MAWSON RETURNS FROM ABROAD.

Sir Douglas Mawson arrived in Adelaide on Wednesday at the work. ... Sir Douglas Mawson arrived in Adelaide on Wednesday at the work. ... Sir Douglas Mawson arrived in Adelaide on Wednesday at the work.

He said that he studied the geological features of the lands he visited, and the economic and commercial possibilities of the country. ... He said that he studied the geological features of the lands he visited, and the economic and commercial possibilities of the country. ... He said that he studied the geological features of the lands he visited.

and was proud to be mentioned as a notable. ... and was proud to be mentioned as a notable. ... and was proud to be mentioned as a notable.

This type of back Boer labour was granted 8/ per day, and the native did not receive more than 2/ per day. ... This type of back Boer labour was granted 8/ per day, and the native did not receive more than 2/ per day. ... This type of back Boer labour was granted 8/ per day, and the native did not receive more than 2/ per day.

It is the intention of the Government to develop into a race with Australia for the London market. ... It is the intention of the Government to develop into a race with Australia for the London market. ... It is the intention of the Government to develop into a race with Australia for the London market.

REG. 24-3-27 THE JUDICIARY.

Messrs. Richards and Stuart Appointed.

Mr. Acting Justice Richards was in Executive Council on Wednesday appointed a Judge of the Supreme Court of South Australia, and Mr. J. H. Stuart (Attorney of the Supreme Court) was appointed Acting Judge of the Supreme Court during the absence on leave of Mr. Justice Richards. ... Mr. Acting Justice Richards was in Executive Council on Wednesday appointed a Judge of the Supreme Court of South Australia, and Mr. J. H. Stuart (Attorney of the Supreme Court) was appointed Acting Judge of the Supreme Court during the absence on leave of Mr. Justice Richards.

Referring on Wednesday to the appointments, the Attorney-General (Hon. W. J. Dennis) stated that the appointments were made by the consequence of the resignation of Sir Douglas Mawson. ... Referring on Wednesday to the appointments, the Attorney-General (Hon. W. J. Dennis) stated that the appointments were made by the consequence of the resignation of Sir Douglas Mawson.

REG. 24-3-27

Professors J. A. Prosser, A. E. J. Richardson, T. G. B. Osborn, and A. J. Perkins, accompanied by Mr. W. J. Spillford, of the Adelaide Technical School, ... Professors J. A. Prosser, A. E. J. Richardson, T. G. B. Osborn, and A. J. Perkins, accompanied by Mr. W. J. Spillford, of the Adelaide Technical School, ... Professors J. A. Prosser, A. E. J. Richardson, T. G. B. Osborn, and A. J. Perkins, accompanied by Mr. W. J. Spillford, of the Adelaide Technical School.

REG. 24-3-27

Dr. Richards' Career. The permanent appointment of Dr. Richards to the Bench was distinguished as Acting Judge over a considerable period, and is noted for the many judgments, and to the depth thought that he gives to the evidence adduced before him in his decisions. ... Dr. Richards' Career. The permanent appointment of Dr. Richards to the Bench was distinguished as Acting Judge over a considerable period, and is noted for the many judgments, and to the depth thought that he gives to the evidence adduced before him in his decisions.