

...the most marked...
...greatly devoted to the interests of the University...

Less to Church of England.

The Dean of Adelaide (Very Rev. G. A. Young), in the absence of the Bishop of Adelaide...

Friend of Young Lawyers.

That young lawyers had a grand friend in Mr. Justice Poole...

"Sincerity and Charm."

Mr. Fred Johns, hon. secretary of the Adelaide branch of the Royal Society of St. George...

Labour Sympathy.

The following notice was offered by Mr. T. P. Howard...

A Scholar and a Gentleman.

The late Mr. Sydney, K.C., with whom the late Mr. Justice Poole was associated...

...for them, and the holders of Music, Science, Engineering, and Law...

The Duke rode. His Royal Highness arrived at the front entrance to the University...

There was loud cheering from the groups of undergraduates...

Impressive Ceremony at University.

Long before 11 a.m. every seat in the Hall, with the exception of those reserved for the members of the University...

An Honourable Hall.

The Vice-Chancellor read the following address of welcome from the University of Adelaide...

The Chancellor in conferring the degree of Bachelor of Arts...

The Duke in rising to reply, had to wait nearly a minute to be permitted to ascend the platform...

Interchange of Professors and Students.

There was loud cheering from the groups of undergraduates...

A Scholar and a Gentleman.

The late Mr. Sydney, K.C., with whom the late Mr. Justice Poole was associated...

The Chancellor in conferring the degree of Bachelor of Arts...

The Duke rode. His Royal Highness arrived at the front entrance to the University...

Interchange of Professors and Students.

There was loud cheering from the groups of undergraduates...

An Honourable Hall.

The Vice-Chancellor read the following address of welcome from the University of Adelaide...