

WOLLENGRIEN RESEARCH

ADDRESSES BY UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS.

PASTORALISTS URGED TO HELP.

Valuable addresses were delivered to delegates to the conference of the National Woolselling Brokers and the Australian Woolgrowers' Council...

The Chairman of the conference (Mr. G. Aitken) introduced the speakers.

RESEARCH AND THE PASTORAL INDUSTRY.

Professor Robertson said the urgent necessity for research in Australia on mat-and second-defects in the composition of the wool...

Value of Iodine. Another very important item of the mineral dietary, said the professor, was iodine...

Animal Diseases. Professor Robertson pointed out that the problem was not wholly separable from the problem of animal nutrition...

Shortage of Scientific Geniets. The Chairman said he had listened with interest to Professor Robertson's address...

Dr. Richardson gave an interesting account of the establishment of the research institute and detailed the work being done at Urrbrae.

COMBATING DISEASE.

Professor A. H. Woodruff, of the Melbourne University Veterinary School, spoke on the necessity of research in relation to stock diseases.

Confidence of Pastoralists.

Their greatest difficulty had been to discover in Victoria the man who would do the thing that was to be done...

ADV 286-27. The Prime Minister (Mr. Bruce) has announced the title of the address he will deliver in the Brookman Hall on Friday...

ADV 286-27

A STUDENT'S CONCERT.

The sixth concert of the present season was given by a number of students of the Elder Conservatorium...

VISIT TO URRBRAE.

Delegates accepted an invitation to visit the Walle Research Institute at Urrbrae on the grounds by the Director (Dr. M. P. Richardson)...