

ROSEWORTHY AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

THE MAIN SCHOOL BUILDING.

Built in 1883, Roseworthy Agricultural College has been taken as a standard by similar institutions throughout the Commonwealth. The success of its work is shown by the number of former students who now hold executive positions on its teaching staff, as well as throughout Australia, and who are putting its precepts into successful practice.