"The Sea hath its Pearls."

Song

Words by Heine

Music by Arthur Williamson
The sea hath its pearls, the heaven hath its stars. But my heart, my heart, my heart hath its love... The sea hath its pearls, the heaven hath its stars. But my heart, my heart... my heart hath its love.
Great are the sea and the heaven.... Yet greater is my heart.... And fairer than pearls and stars....

Flash-es and beams my love.... flash-es and beams my love....
Semplire.

Thou little youthful maiden, come unto my great heart—my heart and the sea and the heaven. Are melting away with love—melting away with love—molto rall.
The sea hath its pearls, the heaven hath its stars. But my heart, my heart, my heart hath its love. ——— sea hath its pearls, the heaven hath its stars. But my heart hath its love.

The

Animato e cresc.

heart hath its love. But my heart, my heart... My heart hath its love.
