"The Sea Hath its Pearls."

Song.

Words by

Heine.

Music by

Arthur William.
The sea hath its pearls, the heart hath its pain. But my heart, my heart, my heart hath its love... The sea hath its pearls, the heart hath its pain. But my heart, my heart, my heart hath its love...
Great are the sea and the heaven.
Yet greater is my heart.
And fairer than pearls and stars.
Flashes and beams my love.

L.H.
Thou little youthful maiden, come unto my great heart. My heart and the sea and the heaven. Her melting away with love. Recent, melting away with love. Very soft, melting away with love. Molto sforzando.
The sea hath its pearls, the heart hath its stars. But my heart hath its love.

A Tempo

My heart, my heart, my heart hath its love.

Animato e cresc.

Sea hath its pearls, the heart hath its stars. But my heart hath its love.

Allargando

Heart hath its love but my heart, my heart - my heart hath its love.
