The nightingale has a lyre of gold. Arthur Williamson.

The mistletoe cradles in its arms
And the lark's is a clarion call

The nightingale has a lyre of gold.

And the lark's is a clarion call black bird plays but a love word flute. But I love him best of all.

The song is all of the joy of life, and We in the mad spring weather.

Two have listened till he sang our Hearts, and lips to We

We two have listened

till he sang

Our

Red
heart and lips to gather
