Oh who will walk a mile with me along life's merry way! A comrade blithe and full of glee. Who dares to laugh out loud and free. And let his frolic Dance, play, like a happy child through the flowers gay. That fill the field and rings the way. When he walks a mile with me.

And who will walk a mile with me a long life's weary way? friend whose heart has eyes to see. The stars shine out over the darkening sea. And the quiet rest at the end of day. A friend who knows and dares to say. The

A comrade blithe and full of glee, who dares to laugh out loud and free, with such a comrade such a friend, I 'm sure would walk till journeys end. Though summer sunshine, winter rain—And then? Farewell, fare-
