

Library for University Being Built

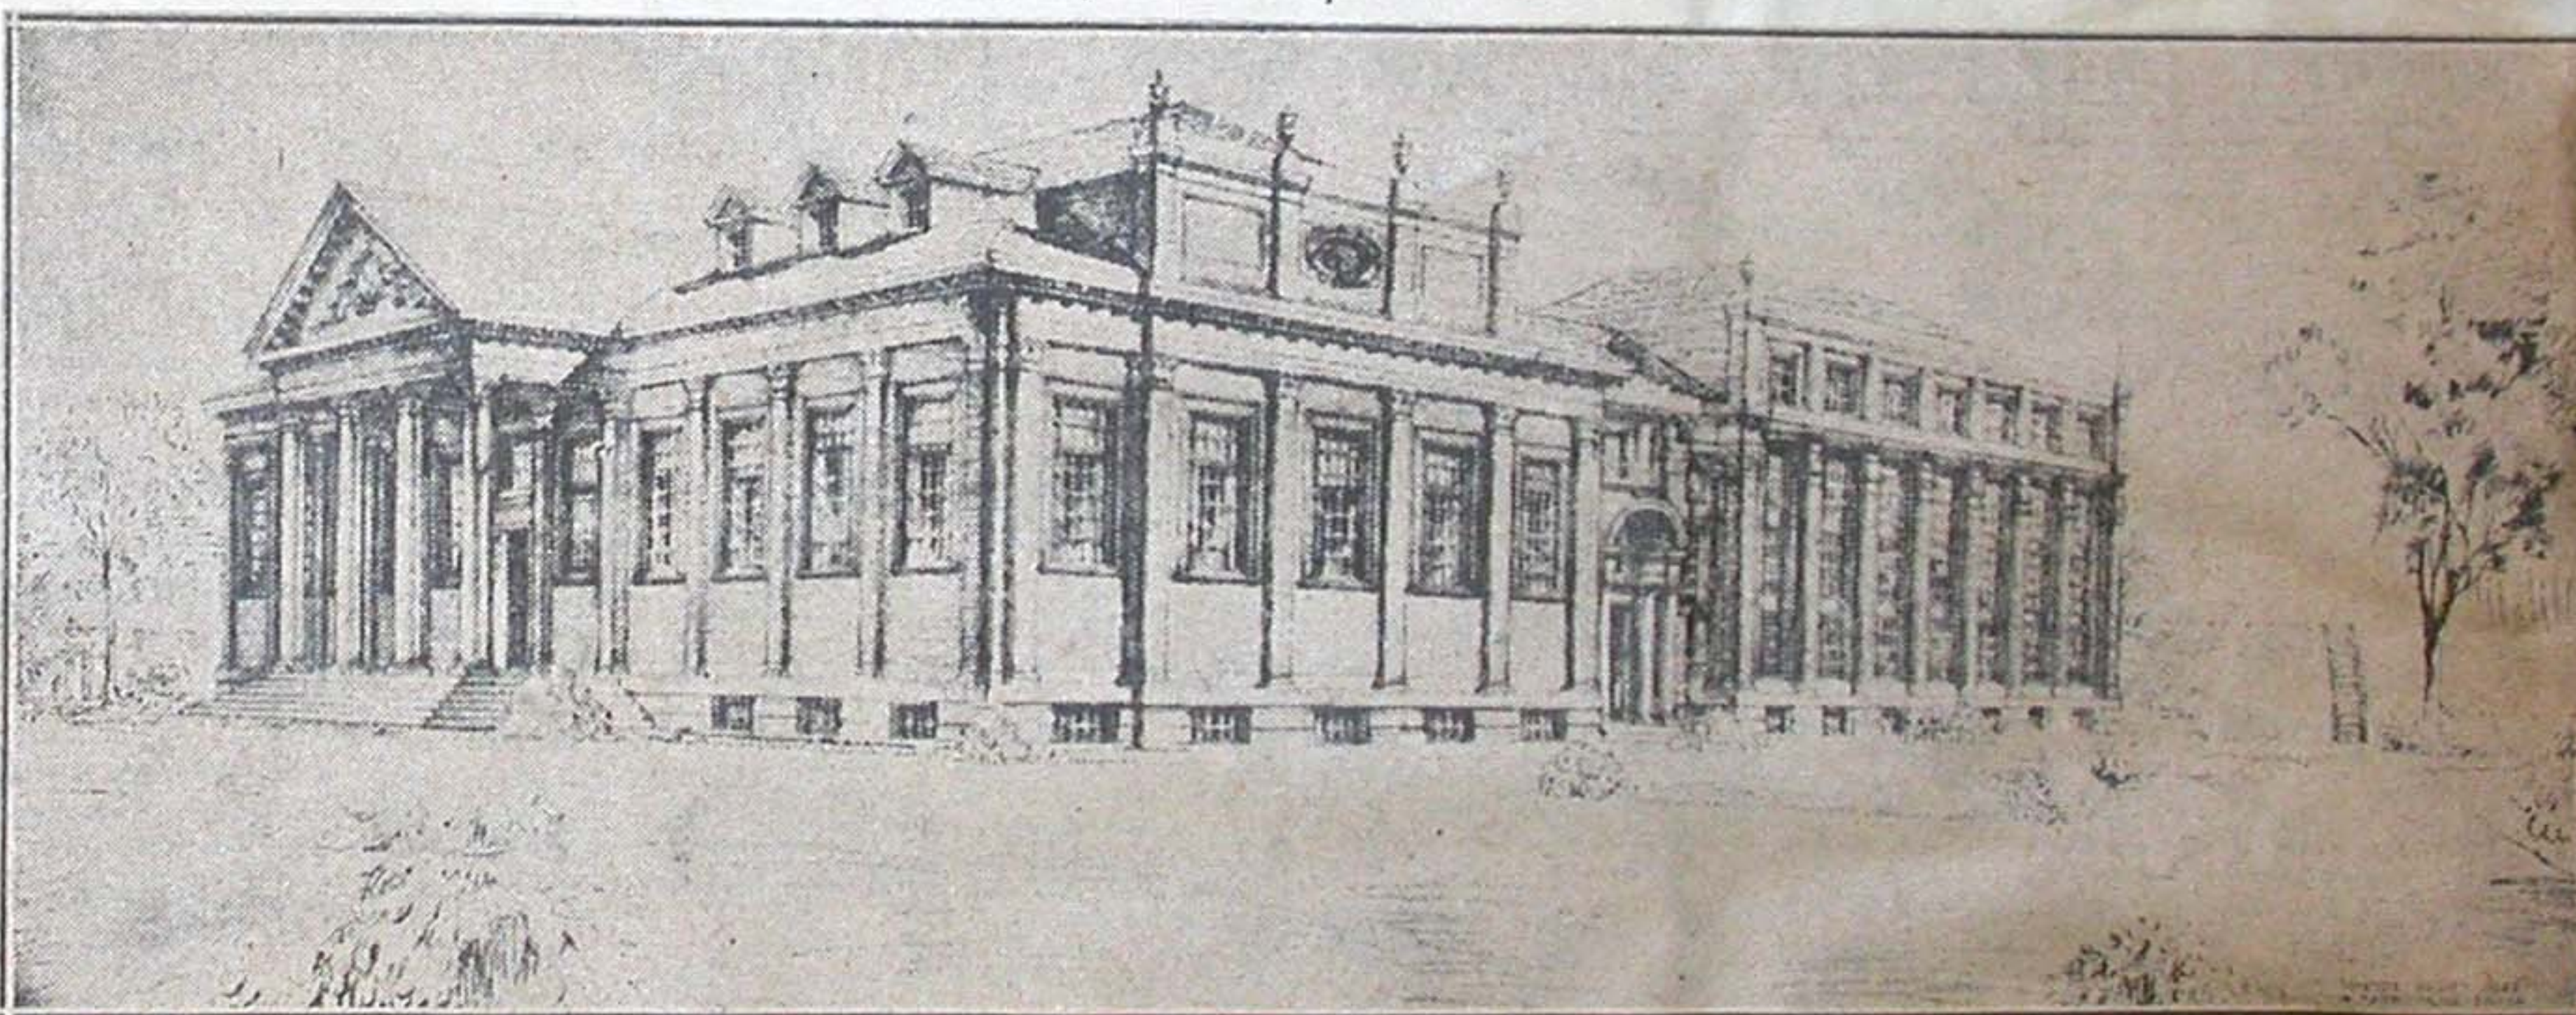

A comprehensive view of the preparatory work on the foundations of the Barr Smith Library, showing the extensive area it will occupy near the Jubilee Oval. It is being erected at a cost of more than £30,000.

Reg. 30-9-30

News 29-9-30

AT THE FOUNDATION STONE ceremony of the Barr Smith Library. From left: The Governor (Sir Alexander Hore-Ruthven), Sir George Murray (Chancellor of University), Mrs. T. E. Barr Smith, Sir Wm. Mitchell (Vice-Chancellor).

BARR SMITH LIBRARY AT ADELAIDE UNIVERSITY AS IT WILL APPEAR WHEN COMPLETED—The building has been made possible by the gift of £32,000 from Mr. T. E. Barr Smith as a memorial to his father, the late Mr. Robert Barr Smith. The foundation stone was laid this afternoon by Mrs. Barr Smith. (Report on Page 2.)