Advertiser 3rd June 1933

SIX NEW KNIGHTS IN BIRTHDAY HONORS

K.C.M.G. For Federal Minister And Former Premier Of N.S.W.

DISTINGUISHED JOURNALIST, TWO JUDGES, AND RETIRING AGENT-GENERAL HONORED

Decorations For Public Servants

Knighthoods have been conferred on six Australians in the King's birthday honors list announced at Canberra and the State capitals last night. They are:—

Commonwealth Honors

Senator Sir Walter Massy Greene, Assistant Federal Treasurer, K.C.M.G.

Sir Keith Murdoch, managing director of The Herald and Weekly Times, Melbourne, Knight Bachelor.

State Honors

Sir Thomas Bavin, K.C., former Premier of New South Wales, K.C.M.G.

Sir John Musgrave Harvey, Chief Judge in Equity in New South Wales, Knight Bachelor.

Sir Frederick Mann, acting Chief Justice of Victoria, Knight Bachelor.

Sir Walter Leitch, formerly Agent-General for Victoria, Knight Bachelor.

No South Australians have been honored with a knighthood, but in the Commonwealth list of honors Dr. A. Grenfell Price, Master of St. Mark's College, Adelaide, who is now abroad doing research work for the Rockefeller Foundation, becomes a Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. The Director of Lands (Mr. E. J. Field), in the State honors list, has been decorated with the Imperial Service Order.

The complete list of honors is as follows:—

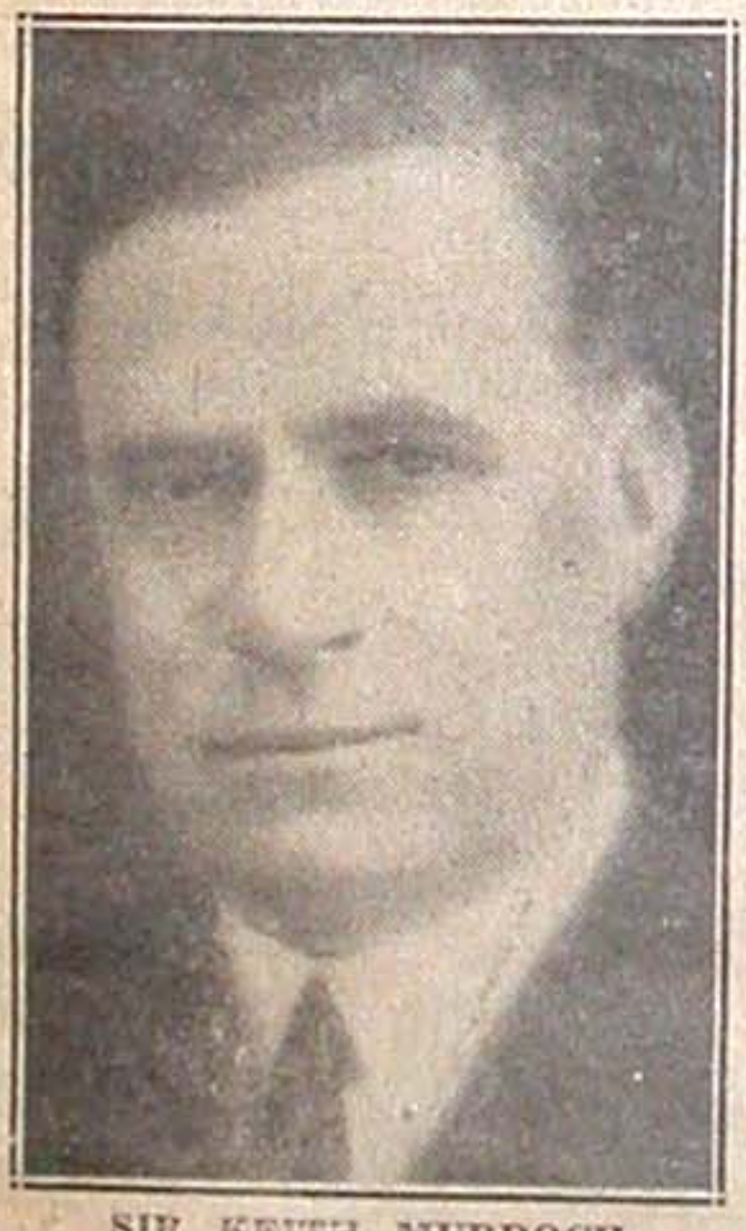
Commonwealth

K.C.M.G.

Senator Sir Walter Massy Greene.

Knight Bachelor

Sir Keith Murdoch.



SIR KEITH MURDOCH

C.M.G.

Mr. Robert Ewing, Commonwealth Commissioner of Taxation.

Dr. A. Grenfell Price, D. Litt., M.A., F.R.G.S., a member of the Council of the University of Adelaide, associate member of the Australian National Research Council.

Colonel Frederick Arthur Maguire, D.S.O., Deputy Director of the Australian Army Medical Services in New South Wales.

C.B.E. (Military Division)

Captain Henry James Feakes, who recently retired from the Royal Australian Navy, after service since 1907.

C.B.E. (Civil Division)

Mr. Herbert Charles Brown, Secretary of the Department of the Interior.

Mr. James Taylor, founder of the Australian Olympic Federation and chairman since its inception.

O.B.E. (Military Division)

Wing Commander W. H. Anderson, D.F.C., R.A.A.F., a member of the Commonwealth Air Board.

Lieutenant-Colonel D. D. Paine, D.S.O., commanding officer of the Army Service Corps, 3rd Division, Australian Military Forces.

Paymaster-Commander E. W. Trivett, R.A.N., who has been a member of the permanent naval forces, Queensland and Commonwealth, since 1900.

Quartermaster and Honorary Major J. McArthur, D.S.O., Australian Instructional Corps, 3rd Military District, Victoria.

O.B.E. (Civil Division)

The Rev. John Flynn, superintendent of the Australian Inland Mission.

Mr. F. G. Sheddon, Assistant on External Affairs to the Commonwealth Resident Minister in London.

Mr. A. R. Townsend, accountant of the central staff of the Commonwealth Department of Trade and Customs.

M.B.E. (Military Division)

Mr. G. T. Saunder, commissioned gunner, R.A.N., who served in the Royal Australian Navy since 1912.

Quartermaster and Honorary Major —W. W. Tracy, Australian Instructional Corps, Third Military District, Victoria.

Quartermaster and Honorary Major —M. Coats, Australian Instructional Corps, Third Military District, Victoria.

Quartermaster and Honorary Major —W. Kennedy, M.C., Australian Instructional Corps, Second Military District, New South Wales.

M.B.E. (Civil Division).

Mr. A. J. Odgers, private secretary to the Postmaster-General, Commonwealth of Australia.

I.S.O.

Mr. S. Irwin, formerly Commonwealth Chief Electoral Officer.

Air Force Cross

Flight Lieutenant A. M. Charlesworth, R.A.A.F.

Air Force Medal, No. 588

Sergeant F. W. Collopy, Royal Australian Air Force, sergeant pilot-instructor at Point Cook, Victoria.

The Governor-General has also received advice that the King has approved the appointment of Mr. A. H. Gaze, general manager for the British Phosphate Commissioners, to be a C.B.E. (civil division).

States

SOUTH AUSTRALIA

I.S.O.

Mr. E. J. Field, Director of Lands.

NEW SOUTH WALES

K.C.M.G.

Sir Thomas Bavin, K.C.

Knight Bachelor

Sir John Musgrave Harvey, Chief Judge in Equity.

C.M.G.

Mr. L. A. Robb, president of Returned Soldiers' League.

O.B.E.

Mr. K. Cramp, hon. secretary and former president of the Royal Historical Society.

Mr. Hugh Wright, late librarian of the Mitchell Library.

Mrs. Mona Godhard, organiser of the New South Wales Cancer Research Fund campaign and of the Bush Nursing Association fete.

M.B.E.

Mr. R. A. Gilfillan, late chairman of the State Superannuation Board.

The Rev. S. G. Drummond, hon. organiser of the Far West Children's Health Scheme.

Captain G. Hanlan, organiser of the Picton Lakes T.B. Scheme.

Miss P. M. Bolsier, Royal Red Cross matron of Royal Prince Alfred Hospital.

Mr. T. Fox, who has been associated with State Limbless Soldiers' Association since its inception.

VICTORIA

Knight Bachelor

Sir Frederick Wollaston Mann.

Sir Walter Leitch, C.B.E.

C.B.E. (Civil Division)

Mr. W. R. Alexander.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

C.M.G.

Mr. William Charles Angwin, former Agent-General for Western Australia.

I.S.O.

Mr. Alexander Ronald Grant, Clerk of Parliaments.

Mr. Charles Glasebrook Morris, Under-Secretary for Lands.

TASMANIA

O.B.E.

Mr. Colin McKenzie Pitt, engineer and surveyor in the State Public Works Department.

Smith Library. There were applicants from all parts of Australia, and from

"Virus Diseases of Plants, with special reference to

LONDON, June 4.

Sir Douglas Mawson is busy winding