

Adv. 1-10-35

Gardens In University Grounds:

Oct. 1935

THE EXTENT AND beauty of the University grounds are most impressively demonstrated at present. There is a mass of blooms in the well-kept gardens, and the authorities invite the public to view them. On the mounds between the Barr Smith Library and Anatomy School, crimson, mauve and yellow mesembryanthemums make a blaze of color.

News 11-10-35

Research Honor

PROF. I. HARVEY JOHNSTON, professor of zoology at the University of Adelaide, who will be the next recipient of the Sir Joseph Verco Medal, which is conferred from time to time upon any member of the Royal Society in South Australia for scientific research work which is deemed worthy of the honor. The medal will be conferred upon Prof. Johnston at the society's next meeting.

News 8-11-35

Noted Explorer

Dr. BERTRAM THOMAS, who is now in Adelaide to give illustrated lectures at the University about his explorations. Dr. Thomas is the only man to have crossed the great South Arabian desert. He covered the distance of about 850 miles in 1929-31.