

"The Rainbow comes and goes"

Poem: W<sup>m</sup>. Wordsworth.

Music Robt. Cross.

Unaccompanied Part-Song
for A.G.H.S. choir.

---

May 1953.

(words-worth.)

The Rainbow comes and goes

(To A.S.H.S. Choir)

Robt. Cross.

The Rainbow comes and goes

The Rainbow comes and goes, The Rain-bow comes and goes,

Rain - bow comes and goes,

The Rain - bow comes and goes, and love-ly, love-ly, love-ly is The Rose.

The Moon doth with de light look

The Moon doth with de-light The Moon doth with de light look round her when Heavns are the bare, the Heavns are bare Wa-ters on a star-ry night are beau-ti ful and fair. Wa-ters on a star-ry night are beau-ti ful and fair. Wa-ters on a star-ry night are beau-ti ful and fair. (meno mosso) Wa-ters on a Star-ry night are beau-ti ful and fair. (meno mosso) Wa-ters on a Star-ry night are

(a tempo)

(a tempo primo)
Sun - shine is a, glor - ious Birth, beau - ti - ful and fair; The The sun - shine is a glo - rious Birth, The

Rit

Sun - shine is a glor - rous Birth But yet I know, I know where e'er I may go That But yet I know I know where e'er I may go there hath passed, hath passed a way a glory glo - ry that there hath passed, hath pass'd a way a glo - ry glo - ry there... hath glo - ry from the Earth, A glo - ry from the

Molto rit
Earth pp hath pass - ed a way

Robt. Cross
(R.G. Cross)
26.5.53