A HISTORY OF THE IDEAS AND PRINCIPLES OF
SOCIAL WORK IN ENGLAND AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

by

Kathleen Woodroofs, M.A.
Senior Lecturer in History,
University of Adelaide.

A thesis submitted in fulfilment of the requirements for the degree of Ph. D. in the University of Adelaide.

1962.
TABLE OF CONTENTS.

PART ONE: THE ENGLISH ORIGINS

I. In the Midst of Victorian Plenty ............ 3

II. The C.O.S. and Social Casework .......... 25

III. Social Group Work and Community Organization in Nineteenth Century England ..... 56

PART TWO: LADY BOUNTIFUL IN THE NEW WORLD.

IV. Poverty and Oysters in the U.S.A. .......... 77

V. Social Work Takes Stock: Mary E. Richmond and Social Diagnosis ..................... 101

VI. The Psychiatric Deluge .................... 118

PART THREE: FROM LADY BOUNTIFUL TO SOCIAL WELFARE.

VII. The State as Social Worker ............... 151

VIII. The Simple Dues of Fellowship .......... 178

IX. The 'New Look' in Social Work .......... 207

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY ................................. 229
APPENDICES:

Appendix A: Publications arising out of thesis:

2. Published articles arising out of thesis:

   (1) "C.S. Loch", printed in The Social Service Review, vol. XXXII, no. 4 (December, 1958), pp. 400-413.

Appendix B: Summary of thesis.