time to the work of the University which he has hitherto required, felt it incumbent on him to resign the position. This gave an opening for the election of a master of religion, and the Rev. W. F. Fletcher, who was nominated for the position. Meanwhile the friends of the Bishop, naturally deeming the appointment of a man in connection with the Council should be made known, even though he might be unable to attain the object. He prevailed upon him to allow himself to be placed on the list of candidates for one of the vacancies which occurred on Wednesday. It is quite clear that the Bishop did not mean nor did it appear that the name of Dr. Kennon was to be submitted to the Senate, and it is equally clear that the Bishop had knowledge of the facts and that no attempt was made to conceal the matter. Mr. Fletcher wrote to Dr. Kennon, assuring him that he would be on no account accustomed to concur with him, and Dr. Kennon in turn wrote to a member of the Senate explaining his reasons for withdrawing from the contest. As it happened, no official notice could be taken of the withdrawal, as much as the letter in which it was announced had not been addressed to the Chairman. So the matter was handled as though both names had been submitted to the ballot, and it is reasonable to assume that both names would have been elected. It is true that in the end a tie took place between Mr. Fletcher and Mr. G. J. Murdock, and the first name noted in the list to which the matter was submitted was the name of the tie-breaker, Mr. Fletcher. But it is difficult to believe that the former would have been elected. The fact is that Mr. Fletcher was the only candidate, as it appears that the Council or the University was not interested in the candidate of the University. It is very much to be hoped that the Council has not decided to consider the matter of the candidates or the University of the Body. It is very much to be hoped that the Council has not decided to consider the matter of the candidates or the University of the Body. It is very much to be hoped that the Council has not decided to consider the matter of the candidates or the University of the Body. It is very much to be hoped that the Council has not decided to consider the matter of the candidates or the University of the Body.

UNIVERSITY COUNCIL ELECTIONS.

The election for the University Council in consequence of the retirement and resignation of the office of Professor of Law, Mr. W. H. W. Fletcher, Mr. G. J. Murdock, Mr. J. E. H. Loomis, the Hon. Dr. Cookson, Mr. H. P. F., and Mr. W. H. W. Fletcher, and for the office of Master of Religion to which the appointment was accepted. It was afterward decided that the other representatives of the University and the University of the Body should be the Council's representatives. Mr. J. E. H. Loomis remainered a member of the University Council, and the position of the Bishop to be made known. The Bishop was not requested to be present at the meeting, and the Bishop consented to be reappointed. The matter was again under consideration when the meeting was in progress, and the Bishop was requested to be present at the meeting. The Bishop was not present, and the Bishop was requested to be present at the meeting.
