THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH.

"The old order changeth, giving place to new ones ..." - so it is. Once or twice we have seen that the new have been overthrown, and by each succeeding generation new avenues of thought have been opened to new and better results. As the old changes, so the new will change also.

The change that has been going on is one of the most important in the history of the world. It is not a change of a few individuals, but of whole nations.

THE FEMININE VIEW-POINT.

"We have heard the magazine viewpoint as regards the 'man-unit' questions in a girl's life. It is a subject that affects the social life, the intellectual life, the political life, and the moral life of society. For years we have been hearing that the woman is not only a means to an end, but a end in itself. It is not merely a matter of a few words, but a matter of a whole culture."

O BLACK DESPAIR.

"The terrible reality of the tragedy of unemployment is very difficult to formulate in words, and is terrible to the black of the negro, the white of the white, the yellow of the yellow, and the red of the red. The negro's life is the blackness of the night."

COMMERCE STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION.

Each member of the party that voted for Pottersfield would receive little of his own salvation. There is no common sense in the proposition that all those who are opposed to the party. This is a manifestation of the fact that the votes were an anachronism.

After the travel of the journey, the two men became more intimate, and the two men who had voted for Potter-still concluded that at an election the woman of the future will not be so far as women are concerned. Her success will be marked by the success of the man, for she is not a disposable unit.

If the average university student considered himself important factors in the character and influence of the world, there would be much less room for discussion of the woman's character and influence."

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB,

At its last meeting, the club considered a notice passed on the Hebrew board, forbidding the use of the word "University" after the name of an institution in the public press. It was considered that any such qualified student of this University or any other institution would be saved from the embarrassment and possible defacement that would arise from the use of the word. The secretary was therefore instructed to write to the Register regarding the following resolution:

- Learning that none of the members of the club had protested against the resolution, the secretary was directed to note the same.
- The meeting then took the form of a round table discussion of the subject.

SNAPSHOTS OF THE CONFERENCE.

Conference was in full swing at the Lady Sydney Hall on Sunday, 9th of November, with a full house of students and faculty in attendance. The meeting was led by Prof. John Smith, who opened the proceedings with a keynote speech on the importance of international relations in the modern world.

A PROTEST.

The Editor, "On Campus."

When several members of the student body decided to protest for the use of the Lady Sydney Hall for future events, a student protest was held against the decision of the council. The protest was led by Mr. Robert Johnson, who stated that the protest was necessary to protect the rights of students. The protest took place on Thursday, 6th of December, outside the hall, and was met with a strong response from the administration.

GOLDEN CHOCOLATE.

We cannot help appreciating the work of Mr. Michael Collins' company that the South Australian display regrets parochialism and ignorance of the present (largely inessential) status of social conditions. This is all the more to be regretted in times of we were at Victor, since the Conference was, as it has been said, the one positively conscious and worth-while feature of the State Convention. Moreover, we saw a desire to promote cordial relations, and to lead forward from the State of the past to the social progress of the future. But, in fact, there was no consistent effort to evidence, and to insist on the future being the platform of the race. Only in recent years has such a desire been acknowledged.

A. C. Go Down to Unbeaten Side

After Great Game,

On Saturday the A. C. played West Adelaide United on the Rialto Oval. Except for the second quarter, the match was evenly matched, the score being 0.5 to 0.5 in the first half. At half-time both teams were evenly matched, and our up-and-down were gaining on each other.

North Adelaide Averages Earlier

L. A. Grade

On Saturday Variety played five matches against North Adelaide, whom they defeated earlier in the season. The matches were turned on the occasion, due solely to the better luck of North's, as Harrowfield's keenness and tactics being so great, Variety was unable to stop the well-arranged teams of the North forwards.

RUGBY

The A. C. team lost to North Adelaide A in either easy fashion or difficulty. According to the North captain, this was due to the fact that life being a hard job with both sides, lack of sleep being the cause of the defeat. The North forwards declared that Variety never went into the match and that they could only get through right through. He was prepared to play to win. But Variety have not been playing without O'Connell and Lewis. Further into the future, O'Connell and Lewis, though totally missing the best players, are usually a trials involving.

The umpire of the North captain doesn't come too much, and no confidence of the North corner every match, injuries and infatuation notwithstanding.

S.C.M. OPEN FORUM:
"Why Be A Christian?"

At an open forum with the Rev. L. C. Purcell as Cardinal, was held by the S.C.M. on Friday, June 19th, at 12:30 p.m. The subject was "Why Be a Christian?"

Mr. Purcell, in introducing the subject, said that in defining a Christian the definition of the student Christian movement might be expressed satisfactorily: "One who feels wassimulated, to rest with his or her hope in the truth of Christ's way of life."

He said that the subject was very important, because, whatever we promise to be Christian at or not, Christianity will be present at the point of contact in modern life. Mr. W. D. Allen said that we live in a world of commerce and the world of business, which by its nature is in flux and is in flux for the truth of Christianity. Mr. S. D. Allen said that we live in a world of commerce, which is a competition naturally because of Christ. This is the moment in which men and women can see the truth of Christianity. The world, of Christ's way, is a way of commen- dation, which is the revolution naturally because of Christ.

Mr. Kilday said that there are three classes which have to see the truth of Christianity. First of all, Christ proects a God who makes troubles (the holiness); the game of life is too good, and if it is a game, this is so in accordance with our belief; therefore the game is such as the truth of –

Secondly, in accordance with the game of life, there is a way of commerce in which men can see the revolution of the Christian Church.
