Women's Voluntary Service Register

The scheme for the proposed expansion of the Women's Voluntary Service Register capacity was published last week. A list of the women who have been enrolled and who continue to be so enrolled at all the various posts will be published in the Register for each week. The Register will be available at all organiza- tions and in all areas where the work of the Women's Voluntary Service is being carried on.

COMMITTED

There was a sad report from the Women's Voluntary Service Register this week. The period of service for the women who were discharged from the service last year was for 12 months. This period was extended to 18 months for women who were discharged from the service last year but who have been re-engaged for another period of service. The Register does not provide for extension of the period of service of women who were discharged from the service last year but who have been re-engaged for another period of service.

A Lesson from the Prophet

Mr. Amos, that well-known student, has written an article on the Prophet Amos, which he has published in the magazine "Nature," which is a religious publication. Mr. Amos has written a series of articles on the life and work of the Prophet Amos, which he has published in the magazine "Nature," which is a religious publication.

Among other things we learned that Mr. Amos has a black cat, in opposition to the belief that the Prophet Amos had a black cat. Mr. Amos has written a series of articles on the life and work of the Prophet Amos, which he has published in the magazine "Nature," which is a religious publication.

So, I had last rehearsal, you need to know the schedule, the warming, and also to ask for your next. I want to Vocalize, vocalize. I'm sorry, I didn't get the answer.

Thank you. Rehearsals before dinner. It's good to have some social atmosphere. It's a good opportunity to talk about our next design. I think we're all ready for it.

So, I got back, I'm glad. I saw people. It was good to have some social atmosphere. It's a good opportunity to talk about our next design. I think we're all ready for it.

TAILORS OF CORRECT CLOTHES FOR "VARISSEN MENS"

CUTTING manipulation of A, B and C, and the introduction of the necessity for new and fresh concepts of the man will, in my opinion, benefit greatly by such a needle. The operation of the machine is easy and the results are admirable. A new generation of tailors should be able to adapt themselves to these changes. The machine is a real blessing and I am sure it will be of great assistance to the carriage business.

WHITED SEPULCHRES

Sit—I should like to object to the superfluous nature of the license (as you describe it) in the case of my late father, whose remains are in the cemetery of the B.R.A. at Mawson, South Australia. It was a most unnecessary and superfluous expenditure of public funds.

Yours,
