UPROAR AT SPORTS ASSOC. AND UNION MEETINGS

The Annual General Meetings of the Union and the Sports Association, held in the Lady Symon Hall just before Easter, the two main points raised were the allocation of the 83/3/- statutory fee and the payment of travel expenses for inter-Varisty teams.

At the Annual General Meetings of the Union and the Sports Association, held in the Lady Symon Hall just before Easter, the two main points raised were the allocation of the 83/3/- statutory fee and the payment of travel expenses for inter-Varisty teams.

Union.

Present.—E. J. Sexton, in the chair, Professor W. H. Stender and 41 members.

Apologies.—Mr. A. W. Quinl, Member.

Minutes.—The minutes of the previous A.G.M. were read and confirmed.

Annual Report.—Extracts from this report were read and it was adopted subject to alteration of a few points in the work of W.E.R. and W.E.R.C. of the Australian University Council.

Financial Statement.—Taken as read after a brief outline by the chairman.

General Business.—The chairman outlined the new set-up of the Union and commented on the changes in constitution. It appeared that until now no one had been aware of the fact that the old Union no longer had a constituting body, and therefore there were no elections unbroken (for member, see that indirectly, everyone is getting the chance to have a say in the activities of the union). The union, he pointed out, was not meant to be a debating society, but a team which would do all it could to see that everyone who wanted to be involved in the activities of the union could do so.

Messy for Inter-Union Travel.

The discussion on how the total of student's fees would be appropriated, resulted in an argument between the two sides of the hall, on whether the money raised from inter-Union activities should be directed towards inter-Union travel or towards the purchase of a sports facility. The two sides were split, with the sports association in favor of using the money for inter-Union travel and the union in favor of using it for a sports facility.

Mr. Maddern pointed out that the union was able to send its delegations to events such as the University Games with full funds while the sports association could not even afford to send representatives to major inter-University events. He suggested that money for inter-Union travel be appropriated according to the number of people going.

Mr. Smith suggested that the money available be divided on the basis of the number of people going to the event, and not 50/50 between the S.R.C. and the Sports Association.

Mr. Williams pointed out that anything involving travel was not part of the sports association, in addition to their member A.G.M. fee. Sam agreed that this system was not right, and should be abolished if possible.

Mr. Pearson explained, in effect, that the money available should be distributed according to the merit of the activities concerned; and that he believed National Union of was of more importance than the various local unions.

The meeting was adjourned.

Sports Association.

Mr. Maddern pointed out that it was getting late, and suggested that the meeting be put to the vote. Mr. Maddern, then chairman of the Sports Association committee, should first allocate funds to constituent organisations for their normal purposes, except inter-Union travel; after all such monies, it was emphasised, were not available for inter-Union travel to such societies. In addition to its estimated expenditure on such events, 30/- from Moores, 10/- from the student's union and 10/- from the students' union, were refused to the motion.

Mr. Watson (Maddern) moved: "That this council hosts the Student's Union Committee for the annual meetings at the present Union and the future Union meetings, and that this council be committed to the organization of all these meetings.

Mr. Maddern made: "That this council hosts the Student's Union Committee for the annual meetings at the present Union.

The meeting finally passed into an open session with Mr. Smith, Mr. Maddern, and Mr. Percival of the sub-committees of the Union Council to consider exceptions, including a student representative.—Curried Eel of Officers.

Mr. Sangerter (S.R.C.) protested against the decisions with which the new constitution had been imposed on the union, and moved: 'That the new draft constitution be postponed.'

Mr. Brook suggested that the constitution be put to the vote at the next meeting.

Mr. Smith moved: 'That this constitution be put to the vote at the next meeting.'

The meeting adjourned.

THE TENSION OF FINANCE

It is interesting to note how inevitability there are set up camps of varying positions when Finance policy is changed, whether it be in regard to a general increase in prices or even University Union. Such an organization may even lead an ill-natured and entitled diatribe against the policy, but one must consider that at the end, it is the people who will be affected by the changes. It is only by remembering this that one can understand why the arguments continue.

NO APRIL FOOLING AFTER ALL

On April 1 there arrived in Adelaide a page of the Argus in which it was stated that the University Union was planning to alter the status of the University Union. This report was later denied by the President of the Union, who stated that such a plan had not even been discussed.

A WARNING

Finally, the delegates adjourned.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

On Thursday, April 4, the Social Science Council held their first meeting of the year. Due to the it was decided that the council would meet weekly and discuss various topics including recent developments in the social sciences.

WINTER COMPETITION STARTS

MEN’S HOCKEY

SEASON OPENS TO-MORROW

Teams for the opening day of the season will be posted on the noticeboard in the Refectory on Thursday. Due to the huge number playing, many players may be omitted from these teams due to overage, so may only those intending to play and thus overlooked please put their names to the adjacent list on the board. This will assist in choosing the teams for subsequent Saturdays.

Before each match all teams are to select a captain, vice-captain, and secy-secretary, whose duty it will be in the future to select the teams.

Last Saturday the A’s played a practice match against Oceania A, who were not playing. The hockey was not inspiring, it was well played, and was full of excellent hockey, the game being dominated by the Varsity team, which was strengthened by a number of newcomers.

WINTER SPORTS DAY

Varsity Sports Day is next Wednesday. The programme on the board will be open from 9 a.m. All Lectures have been suspended for the afternoon, so we have the chance to attend. Success next Wednesday in the Inter-Varsity will decide our place in the Inter-Varsity team.

INTER-VARSITY

The Inter-Varsity team leaves on Wednesday for the Inter-Varsity meet.
Divisions will be made up and the new list is on the board. Final trials will be held on Thursday in conjunction with Women’s Sports Day.

ATHLETICS BALL

This is the biggest bash since the Engineering Ball last Winter, is scheduled for Friday, January 17th. A 60-hour dance programme has been arranged.
Great dancing, fine band in the shape of the W.A.R.D. band, the W.A.R.D. dancing pupils ample supper for 600, and two floors, with the chef, are all ready to be voted. A marquee will cover the outside floor, in case of rain, so you can dance in comfort, regardless of the weather. So come along—it makes a success, and enjoy yourself at the same time.

“C” FOOTBALL

We have opened our account this season, with a 15-0 defeat of Old Colleagues B by 14 goals 14 behind. Old Colleagues A were no match for us. The match was decided to allow the offensive to be restricted, and we aimed to keep the game in a hold in absence until associate broadening. Our forwards have not played the new players do not know about the captain, although they have all had at least three quarters each, and have been rather rugged, but some signs of teamwork are developing. We are go-ter our men settled down and played some good football. A Gilbert, from the services, showed great promise and scored the best man on the ground. Another player to shine was Henderson as full forward; Beales and Strickley were pushing through with their usual tenacity and energy, while Becker continued his solid work on the half-back line. The energetic team, which included some new players, were able to hold off the services. Old Colleagues were not able to several times to the opposition.
Our thanks to George Movre, who did a good job of umpiring, also to Bill Friedmann and "Strawb" Rich-rard, who officiated at goal; all gave their best.

Practice as usual on Wednesday nights, so be there on time.
The interest taken by students in women's hockey this year is very gratifying. The teams have been entered in the South Australian Women's Hockey Association and we hope to be able to field a good outfit by the time the season begins. The interest shown by all the students regarding their hockey having been so great, much more than just fun and games. Attention has been called to the fact that if one takes, one must be regular. This is essential, so please everyone take note.

The A's team, with members as yet unselected positions, is shaping very well, but was defeated 0-3 in a practice match against Archie last Saturday. Meriel Fisher filled in as left inner for Archie, and was one of the main sources of our defeat. Our B's, still in first, defeated Teachers College second team 3-0, and our C's, the College C's, 1-0. So we are looking forward to a good year's hockey.

Cleaver

The B's started the season well by defeating P.A.C. Old Collegians three goals to one at Wigglesworth Oval last Saturday. The scores being 2-1. The actual second half was 3-0. In the match, Jim Whittle was elected captain and J. G. Potter vice-captain. The forwards started the season well by scoring on themselves on the injured list for several weeks. All played well and variety and the team should definitely beat in future matches.

Best players — Bailey, Judell, O’Connor, Potter, Duffy, Coote, Bunterworth, Bligh and Coole, Goodknees-Bentworth 1, Brierdige 4, Coote, Shelley and Duffy each 3, Bligh, Bligh, Beverley and Twojenny each 1.

As the A's are playing in Assaultor League this year, a separate practice is held on Wednesday night (on No. 2 ground opposite Konia Farm if the wind is crowded). Up to date this practice has been poorly attended by the latter members of the team. All should endeavor to attend as this work can only be achieved by practicing as a team. Those who also practice with the A's can still go on Thursday nights.

WINNERS AT STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

John de Curie, John Stevens and John Harbison.

FOOTBALL

THE Pyrmont team will probably be subject to change for Saturday's match, as one of the boys has gone home for tea and the night birds had not yet begun to sing.

Rex was wiping the bar, taking his time:

“Gawky, why shouldn’t I? I’ll have to break me back later on.” He stepped over to serve a man who had seen better days. Their talk centered on the only topic in the war, which seemed to have temperatures soaring irrespective of their accustomed position.

A young digger, “sacked-up” to meet the crisis, had engaged in to down a quick one. The old soldier, life finished, aged, and worn, mumbled:

“Wish I was young again.”

Rex hastily made his diagnosis even obtrusive.

“Yes, I know, but I still wish I was young.”

Rex made a grimace, and leaning on the bar began to discuss as Youth. “There was a young fellow, Johnny Lumbar, in town last night, a bit tight, seems he was on final leave . . . he told me his story, you know — they do.”

“It seems as if he was broke, clueless; couldn’t even find that old lost in the living of a fellow. He had been in the army, but he thought he’d better join up, felt conspicuous having no home! There were complications, his old woman was a wild thing and he was himself, all that. He had to send this guy to school. And here he is, sitting on the rocks. Have another? Yes, sir.”

“The thought thousands eulogized courted a future, a thousand, mind you. Anyway this young fellow must have seen in the eyes of these kids something that broke off a book. But, Gawky, he wasn’t like that at all.”

MOANING ON MANY SUBJECTS

North Terrace, Adelaide.

The Editor,

On Dit,

Dear Sir,—Having passed the unmentioned subjects with varying degrees of interest, I am now enabled to offer some advice and comments to those about to study in this stink of iniquity.

For the benefit of those who have been doing a pre-undergrad. course in Richmond I pray, and seem therefore hazy in outlook, the notes have been set out in bold capitals as possible.

REFECTORY I.—This subject is a pushover. No previous experience necessary, but care should be taken to get one of the comfortable chairs. Don’t be a mag and sit near one of the doors, as all students who are sitting there were born in tents. If so desired more than one year may be taken at once.

QUEE STANDING I.—Compulsory and concurs with Redescent (all years and all the year). I sincerely make male students complete the exercises for the legs and patience before attempting this subject.

RICHMOND I.—Usually only attempted by male students. The lecturer seems to have vanished and so only the girls need be attempting this. Our goal, room was tastefully re-furnished last year, and it is hoped that this will encourage a greater attendance this year.

RIDGE I.—Unhealthy for the sensitive. Hears to 9 o’clock. 9 to 11.

TABLE TENERE I.—Seems to be most of a matter of creed. The plums and pongs put on my nerves so I felt unable to attend.

MATRIMONY I.—Mostly female. Unfortunately I forgot to mark for all the important part of University life and so missed out. A tip much appreciated. I hope all males who were played and looked last year.

Weekdays or week ends. As you can see, my time is rather full, so I must avail myself of the generous help of good Albert Disser. "On the pining male note, let me claim your interest. Yours, U. M. G. McKENZIE.

The Editor,

On Dit,

Dear Sir,—I read with wholehearted approval the comment on Varisty Dancing in this week’s issue of the "On Dit." Whilst not disagreeing with the writer’s assessment of the dance, I object very strongly to the all-important part of the University life being snubbed by a mere casual "huh," not to be presented with an exhibition of new dancing steps.

The programme, too, should be more varied; a bigger variety of dancing, in my opinion, far more preferable than the usual ten to twelve dances, which is far too many for any proper evening of modern "stuff." I have heard many complaints from various quarters, and would like to see other little known and unappreciated subjects in these columns.

The Ball is advertised as being "something different"—let’s hope it is!—I am, etc.,
