MISS UNIVERSITY SUCCESS

At the closing time of five o’clock on Tuesday, August 3, $17,105 had been subscribed by students in and around the State for the University. This is the largest total and more than double the target set for the competition ($9,000) and at the close of the campaign it was evident that the target set for the State for the year to nearly $10,000, that is, nearly twice South Australia’s target. There is still money expected to roll in, however, and it is expected that the final total will be considerably higher.

The money was raised by a variety of means including the sale of concert tickets, raffles, and other fundraising activities. The students were encouraged to donate generously and to spread the word to others to support the cause.

THE GAME IS OVER

A ROQUE MacArthur, roundabout than ever, was one of the last speakers at the general meeting on Wednesday, and he made a stirring call to Med. students: “Come on; fellows; the game is over; let’s return.” The meeting was nearly all taken up by the President’s introductory remarks, which were described by an inter-jector as “a fine chat.”

Ex-representative Pechuckian revealed that the Med. Society would probably allow Med. students to be nominated for the S.R.C. when they received a copy of the new Regulation, if it was satisfactory.

The gist of the President’s speech was that Med. students would not have taken the action they did in re- sponse to the S.R.C. if people had had the right idea about the S.R.C. and the Students’ Union. A special on “Do” reporter interviewed Mr. Magarey after the meeting to find out just how he had only just reached this point of his speech when he had to stop for want of time. The last half of his speech, including the unfinished resolution, was published as a separate article on page six of this issue.

Mr. Magarey had been called to “consider the function of the S.R.C. and the role of the student members of the Medical Faculty to nomi- nate representatives for the S.R.C. by the President of the University. The opening address made it clear that the S.R.C. had not been fully understood within the time specified in the Constitution, and strictly speaking no business could be done. But in view of the interest apparent over the last six weeks in the action of the Med. Society, he was going to report to the meeting why he had called it, and in informal discussion might fol- low. He would begin with the back- ground and history, which started in April and May, when the Science Association and Track Group applied for funds. The result was the appointment of an “Affairs” Sub-Committee consisting of Miss E. E. Major and Messrs. B. and B. S. Martin, to consider the relations of clubs and societies to the S.R.C.

We admit, the regulation was controversial and tended to exagger- ation,” said Magarey amid applause.

It was partly due, as some have said, to a sketch copying of inter- estant praise. But I would now see any lingering impression that the Society was not going to be a body to stand up to the public eye at that time.

Leaving the past behind us, we now face on to the future.

PROCESSION

HEY-DAY FRIDAY

With a hack-pitch of sound, color and haly-hoo, the second peak-week of “Varsity” begins and heralds the end of the second term on Friday, August 13. The Varsity Procession is the turn of the traditional traditions which cannot be allowed to cease after its culmina- tion review last year.

SUCCES!

Last year’s show was the talk of Adelaide—particularly General Mantle’s mas- querade as high standard which we must try to at- tend, you see in the future and please them?”—Calwell’s Chika, Wrigg’s Go- lini, a of “villain’s-looking out-throughs” as “On the Night” represented by Tattersall’s Blue Moon, the McPhee, Bayliss-Ford for the Nep Nation, North End, Goliath, etc., etc—all being typical subjects, which a love in the public eye at that time.

Orders of the Day

The following will be taken up on Monday: They will be addressed to Mr. John Smith, who has been requested to do co-operation. They also extend their thanks to Lady Bourke and Messrs. A. P. Bowes and Louis Macbeath for their interest and co-operation in the last two weeks.

What are you doing?

As societies have been suspended and their representatives are collect- ing funds, organizing for the transport, etc., apart from those societies fast is kept up by individuals and groups of students who are trying to get their representation.

The directors, c/o S.R.C., Office, will be very pleased to hear from you if you are willing to take part. They would also be more than pleased to hear from anyone with offers of transport—such as your society’s representation. However, if you can’t obtain transport, don’t worry as the process will be a at a walking pace and you won’t get left behind.

In conclusion, the Correspondence Ap- pellate Committee is still at work and active after a grueling term’s work. A smaller body will now be formed, towards making this the best possible week for the Society’s representation—be sure to help.

Well, that’s all about, so here’s wishing you a happy pro- cession!

Procession representatives are planned on the meeting to-day (Tuesday, 10th) in the George Murray Lounge at 1.30 p.m.

BOOK SHOP

226 NORTH TERRACE . . . 4545

CONSTRUCTIVE READING

"The Living Body" by Beat and Ferrier . . . 27/6
"Theory and Practice of Practical Nursing" by Grundy . . . 42/6
"Textbook of Quantitative Inorganic Analysis" by Voigt . . . 35/6
"Textbook of Practical Orga- nic Chemistry" by Voigt . . . 72/6

Argonaut

PUBLISHED FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Vol. 16, No. 10.

Work for Peace

“On Dit” publishes a lot of international news as delivered by the international press and some of its agents here. The Editors wish to make it clear that this is not done for profit but for information. All articles, comments, etc., for publication, should be written or edited by the writer in the form of one side of paper only.

Contributors should be left in the “On Dit” box in the Union Building.

Corn Exchange

There has been considerable protest from University circles in Australia on the subject of American sonic strips. The injuries of impure goods, so-called, in which American dollars are falsified on the surface of the steel, have been very severe in Australia. The States have been asked to prevent the importation of these goods. It is feared that the Government may be tempted to pass laws which will prevent the importation of these goods.

Uncle Sam’s News

The United States is a great nation, with a great population, and it has the right to protect its interests abroad. It is feared that the Government may be tempted to pass laws which will prevent the importation of these goods. It is feared that the Government may be tempted to pass laws which will prevent the importation of these goods.

SYDNEY CONFERENCE

John Rider was selected to represent the University of Sydney at the conference to be held in New York. He is a member of the N.U.A.U.S. constitution. Various students were present, Mrs. Kennedy was appointed George Murrow lieutenant, and Mr. Smith attended for his services there. Mr. O’Malley was thanked for his work as Local Art Director.

There was a long discussion on non-membership. Eventually we may be able to work through committees and parties at the Board of the University of Sydney.

The meeting adjourned the following Monday at 9, and no quorum could be raised to adjourn the following Monday at 9, and no quorum could be raised to enable the discussions to continue for the purpose of discussing the questions of the day. The meeting adjourned the following Monday at 9, and no quorum could be raised to enable the discussions to continue for the purpose of discussing the questions of the day.

Let’s Go to the Pictures

When you go to the pictures, do you get the attention of the film stars? If you do, then you are in luck. If you don’t, then you are not in luck.

BROWN & PEARCE, 227 North Terrace
Students in Asia—U.S.

CHINA

(Based on a report received from the Federation of Chinese Students' Students' Strike.)

On May 30, 1948, the Federation of Chinese Students, in the name of 110,000 students, declared the so-called elections of the President of China a "joke" contained in the "nationalist democracy," as advocated by the reactionary members of the Kuomintang.

On the same day as the elections, students in various parts of China expressed theudad against the Kuomintang and the policies of the Nationalist government.

The students declared that they had no confidence in the Kuomintang, and no confidence in its "nationalist democracy." The students declared that they would continue to struggle against the Kuomintang and for a better China.

The students called for a general strike of all students and workers.

The Military Revolution in Japan

During the first days of May, the parents of the students of the whole of China began to protest against the policy of the Kuomintang. The students, in particular, expressed their determination to continue the struggle against the Kuomintang and for a better China.

The students called for a general strike of all students and workers.

(Written in a recent book by Professor S. B. Baim.)

SIAM

(Cornelius G. B. H. S. A. S. A.)

Siam is a small and remote country, well known by the foreign world as a source of rich and valuable products, and as a centre of the opium trade.

The government of Siam is a constitutional monarchy, under the rule of King Chulalongkorn, who has held the throne for over forty years.

The government of Siam is a constitutional monarchy, under the rule of King Chulalongkorn, who has held the throne for over forty years.

The government of Siam is a constitutional monarchy, under the rule of King Chulalongkorn, who has held the throne for over forty years.

International Congress of Architects

The International Congress of Architects is held every four years, and is attended by architects from all parts of the world. The congress is held at various cities, and the participants come from all parts of the world. The congress is a meeting place for architects to exchange ideas and to discuss the latest developments in the field of architecture.

W.S. H. Appeal Campaign

The wishes of the students, the merchants, and the working classes are being expressed in a number of meetings and demonstrations held in various parts of the country. The students are determined to continue their struggle for a better China, and for the establishment of a democratic government.

Wine and Dine at The Claremond Restaurant

155 kundie street, sydney, n.s.w.

NOW AVAILABLE—NOW AVAILABLE:

DINER: STEAK, FISH, VEAL, OR VEGETABLES.

WE SPECIALIZE IN SOCIAL FUNCTIONS, WEDDINGS, ETC.

R. A. B. R. S. A. R. A.

RAYMOND H. ELIOT, LTD.

31 JUIN AND STREET, ADELAIDE: "THE WINE FOR THE LADIES."
DEMOCRATS SAVED

In June, 1947, the International Union of Students sent a strong protest to the French Government which had invited them to attend the International Congress of the world-famous Spanish democrats. Other youth and student organisations sent similar protests. A joint statement expressing the opinion, voiced by Franco to spare the lives of the young people under arrest.

The following report was written by Miss Margaret Richards, a delegate of the World Federation of Democratic Youth, and the IUS's representative of the IUS and the WFDY to investigate the charges. The delegates from the IUS (the IUS) were putting out information to the press. They have been accused of the Franco students, dealing with the conditions of democratic students in France.

Interview with Yuri Di Gregorio at the Headquarters of the IUS.

A taxi takes us to the central office of the IUS, in a large building which is also the Palazzo headquarters. The ground floor has a room reserved for the personal guard of General Franco, and entrance to Palazzo uniform, with fixed badges, serve the Fascist white. So did the lifebloods. We were shown into an elegant apartment.

Yuri is twenty-five years old, exensively dressed, born to command. He works voluntarily in the Franco Ministry of Education, responsible for the men's section, receiving no salary for her work. She had to be asked questions, which no doubt explained why she could not explain any further. She is stubborn, hard as stone, and does not fantasize. For a time she lived outside Spain, serving for four years in the French Foreign Legion, and the Franco government, and speaking of himself as if he were a Frenchman.

When asked her what she thinks of the present government in Great Britain, she said that she prefers the system in Russia in the form of communism. She knows a little of the Polish government, and speaks of it as if the system in Poland is better. She is careful to point out that though the Polish government pursues a foreign policy which is hostile in another country, it does a great deal for its own people.

On the day of the trial, the Court was crowded, over 100 people being present. The Court is a whitewashed lecture-room in a huge Palace with the Palazzo emblematic, with a crook on the side wall, six army officers sit in judgment. Prosecution and defense attorneys are present.

As at normal trials in France, witnesses were called and cross-examined. A general accusation was read out. The prosecution then proceeded to the defense, and reviewed the evidence adduced. Under existing Spanish regulations, no prisoner can be defined in the guise of terrorism charges.

Yuri went on to explain the charges of the IUS. The general section is directed by the representatives of the Federal Pris. The Franco regime.

leaders of the movement are re-icted rather than elected, on the belief that the movement will not have the same effectiveness in their religious fervor.

The IUS in Madrid does not work for the SEU because it is the only way to reconcile a country. On the other hand, the SEU is opposed to the SEU, which considers it to be a form of Fascism.
New Station could be University Radio

By E. G. WARMQUIST

The Adelaide University may have the opportunity to operate its own radio station if it is in a position to get government clearance. A statement from Canberra said that the University Radio Commission would establish another broadcasting service if the station was given an opportunity to operate on regular wave-lengths through the University's General Radio Unit. It is understood that this commission will have to reach a decision before the end of the year.

EXPERIMENTAL THEATRE

Experimental Theatre—An opportu-

ny of these within the Uni. who were able to develop these interests to the stage of a regular production was the opportunity to have a regular programme in the night centre.

S.R.C. Elections for the 1949 Council

Nomination of FACULTY REPRESENTATIVES close at the Union Office at 5 p.m. on TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1948.

JUBILEE GENERAL REPRESENTATIVES close at the Union Office at 5 p.m. on TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1948.

All nominations must be on the prescribed form and must be signed by the nominees as well as the proposer and seconder.

K. T. HAMILTON, Chief Returning Officer.

It is to be hoped that University members will make fullest use of Radio. Many members of the public have been interested and made use of the University Radio service.

JULY-SAOP-OPERA

A radio network of University radio stations would plan a series of broadcasts designed to give radio as an art form a better picture of Adelaide. The programme will be arranged so that it will be of interest to all sections of the public.

Further, the programme will be arranged so that it will be of interest to all sections of the public.

WATSON VICTOR LIMITED

228-230 NORTH TERRACE

We are now situated at our new address, 'Watson House'—direct opposite the University.

A cordial invitation is extended to inspect our range of Scientific and Surgical Equipment.

W.E.A. BOOKROOM

ROYAL & LURRER: METHODS OF PLANT BREEDING 38/-
TAYLOR'S INTRODUCTION TO WEATHER AND CLIMATE 35/-

IMPERIAL: ANIMAL BREEDING 35/-

Lapage: GEOLOGY AND ARCHAEOLOGY 30/-

GOLD: FUNDAMENTALS OF ELECTRICAL DRESSING 45/-

Dunlop: ELECTRICAL MACHINE ENGINEERING 42/-

ASHU'RE'S POWER ENGINEERING 42/-

ASHU'RE'S TRANSPORT ENGINEERING 42/-

ASHU'RE'S PRINCIPLES OF ELECTRICITY 70c.

Stedman & Dun: PHOTOGRAPHY OF GENETICS 21c.

WESTERN DRIVE, UNIVERSITY

C 3355

EXAMS ARE NOT FAR AWAY! Have your "Final Flutter" at the SCIENCE BALL SATURDAY, AUGUST 14

(End of Day of Term)

KOVETLETS—SUPER—BOOKINGS

BUY YOUR TICKETS AND BOOK EARLY FOR DOUBLE TICKET

Obtainable from Union and S.R.C. Offices and Committee Members.

Bookings at Union and S.R.C.
This article arose out of an attempt to answer the question:

Why did Med. students think they would benefit anyone for them not to be represented on the S.R.C.?

I believe that there is a fundamental misunderstanding, common in some degree to all students in the University, of the function of the S.R.C.

But whether or not this is so, the fact that such a misunderstanding causes great harm to the Union, and is resulting in a loss to the individual members of the Union — this fact was more than amply demonstrated by every word that was said during the crisis.

The place of the Staff and Council in the Union has always been a bone of contention. Because of this, the Union has never been clearly defined, and the Students' Union is now without a name.

In 1945 a Labourist who happened, largely through active interest and participation, in the S.R.C., affords a good idea of the conditions of the other opinions that had prevailed in the University at the time, and in 1946 they accepted it with a sigh of relief.

They divided the Union into a number of constituencies — University Council, Women's, Sports, and S.R.C. Now leaving aside the University Council, each of these constituencies consists of an association, a group of people, with an elected committee at its head. Each association has a delegate, a company, to which the general council, has a name for both, another delegate. Members of these associations are by no means identical, but these are the lines on which the S.R.C. operates.

There were two reasons for this. One was that the idea of the S.R.C.'s function was simply that of a student's court, which was to do away with an institution called "censorship." Fair enough; but this also is true: If there were no Student Association, the remainder of the S.R.C's. functions might be regarded as futile. The other reason was that the students didn't know what it meant to have a S.R.C. or whether the Union was really worth while. The aim of changing this was called "a University for the people," to have it in effect as though they were there as students, and not as though people would understand how they were students, and that they would go to do away with the old constitution simply in the new constitution simply by changing the name of the Adelaide University Union.

In point of fact, however, Med. students only defined a group as any of the other constituencies of the Union.

S.R.C. OVER-ESTIMATED

That is how we came to get the present set-up and the present confusion. When I say that the important weakness of the S.R.C. is that it is like saying that because the B.A. Government has taken over any number of heavy-handed downshovels across as Osborne for the people of the State thereof, and the S.R.C. should go down and stoke the boilers themselves. But it may be a personal, but it's what not; it's what it is. It is one of the reasons I told any of those that had it. The student simply didn't understand what the position of the student, and that it was something one could more by one instead of something that's so invol-...
Sitting Pretty

MISS UNIVERSITY

August 5, 1948

Dear Sir—Now that the business of raising the money for the Miss University competition is over and before the judging takes place I would like to enter the list with an emphatic good luck.

I cannot reconcile a competition of this nature with my conception of a University and that for which a University stands. As far as I see, the University is an institution of learning, which exercises a great formative influence not only on the students but on the character of its graduates. In this its has a responsibility to the community which it serves, and to the traditions or which it stands. Agility is its keynote, and the whole is tempered by common sense. All this is violated and in danger of being undermined by a competition such as this which smacks of Fash Doll, adolescent American Coquette, and mercantilism in its worst form.

My opinions in this were strengthened when I found in the same edition of the "Nana," reports of something in connection with this competition on the one hand, and the Loyed and Motherhood competition on the other. Both these reports were written in such a way as to indicate the condescending attitude of the judge about both. I am, sir, etc.

In the University Magazine, June 30, 1948.

ON CABBAGES AND KINGS!

Don't you agree that the Refectory, built as it is, offers unique opportunities for the study of one's fellow creatures? Don't you agree that the common table provides a basis for military training, in that representatives of every possible type of person are to be found there? And isn't it true that in the common table, no one has the right to be ignored? Don't you agree that there is a whole new world to be explored in the common table, and that it is a world which is as rich and varied as the human race itself?

And don't you agree that the common table provides a basis for social studies, in that representatives of every possible type of person are to be found there? And isn't it true that in the common table, no one has the right to be ignored? Don't you agree that there is a whole new world to be explored in the common table, and that it is a world which is as rich and varied as the human race itself?

And don't you agree that the common table provides a basis for political studies, in that representatives of every possible type of person are to be found there? And isn't it true that in the common table, no one has the right to be ignored? Don't you agree that there is a whole new world to be explored in the common table, and that it is a world which is as rich and varied as the human race itself?

And don't you agree that the common table provides a basis for economic studies, in that representatives of every possible type of person are to be found there? And isn't it true that in the common table, no one has the right to be ignored? Don't you agree that there is a whole new world to be explored in the common table, and that it is a world which is as rich and varied as the human race itself?

And don't you agree that the common table provides a basis for moral studies, in that representatives of every possible type of person are to be found there? And isn't it true that in the common table, no one has the right to be ignored? Don't you agree that there is a whole new world to be explored in the common table, and that it is a world which is as rich and varied as the human race itself?

And don't you agree that the common table provides a basis for psychological studies, in that representatives of every possible type of person are to be found there? And isn't it true that in the common table, no one has the right to be ignored? Don't you agree that there is a whole new world to be explored in the common table, and that it is a world which is as rich and varied as the human race itself?

And don't you agree that the common table provides a basis for sociological studies, in that representatives of every possible type of person are to be found there? And isn't it true that in the common table, no one has the right to be ignored? Don't you agree that there is a whole new world to be explored in the common table, and that it is a world which is as rich and varied as the human race itself?

And don't you agree that the common table provides a basis for anthropological studies, in that representatives of every possible type of person are to be found there? And isn't it true that in the common table, no one has the right to be ignored? Don't you agree that there is a whole new world to be explored in the common table, and that it is a world which is as rich and varied as the human race itself?
INTER-VARSITY CARNIVAL

The draw for the Intervarsity Carnival has now been finalised and is as follows:

Wednesday, August 28:
10.00 a.m.-Sydney University.
2.00 p.m.-Tasmania v. West Australia.
3.15 p.m.-Melbourne v. Adelaide.
10.00 a.m.-Tasmania.
12.30 p.m.-South Australia v. Tasmania.
3.15 p.m.-West Australia v. Sydney.

Friday, August 30:
10.30 a.m.-Tasmania v. South Australia.
2.00 p.m.-Adelaide v. Queensland.
3.15 p.m.-West Australia v. Sydney.

Saturday, August 31:
1.45 p.m.-Adelaide v. Sydney on Good Reserves v.
3.30 p.m.-COMBINED UNIVERSITIES v. SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

Monday, August 26:
9.00 a.m.-Tasmania v. Sydney.
2.00 p.m.-Adelaide v. West Australia.
3.15 p.m.-Sydney v. Melbourne.
10.30 a.m.-Sydney v. Melbourne.
3.15 p.m.-West Australia v. Adelaide.

Our inter-varsity team has not been licked at the time of going to press. There are twenty-two players good enough for the side as if the jury were to be drawn from the hat! Whatever the team will be, it will be certain that they will hold their own. Be it the Cyph Cup, which they won for the first time last year, the committee are working hard to give our teams the best of an Australian Carnival over, a slap up dinner at John Martin's and a climax with a gala dance in the Spiritue Bar. The matches will be played in front of the best grandstands and we are sure that the spectators will be thrilled in comfort.

Medical Students
We convey our best wishes to Medical Students. Honorary secretaries,Reader in Nephrological Research, Head Memos, Honorary Lecturer, Medical Society of SA, Dr. Cave, Glowers, Dr. Symons, C. L. Innes, A. J. Macintosh, J. M. Mitchell, D. B. Cotton, B. J. Philpott, Malcolm McNeil.

VARIETY SECOND ON LIST

Following their close defeat at the hands of Sydney University, to their great credit, they have gone on to play three games in succession by drawing 1-1 with Sydney, losing to G. H. Burt, and lastly losing to Sydney University, by a score of 3-0, and being eliminated from the competition.

LAWTON OUTSTANDING

After deflecting Railways, 3-0, on Friday, South Australia and Victoria met in a rugged battle, 0-0. Interim, when Railways failed to score in the first half, Victoria was outstanding, out-hitting the South Australians by a margin of 90 to 60. The return match was played on Melbourne's ground, and the Victoria team was victorious, 2-0.

Students look at Life

University Photography

Boarding student in the rare case of the true student, who also files latest copies of the "New York Times," "Boston Evening Transcript," "San Francisco Examiner," and many others.

Prime purposes of the Library and Laboratory in the George Murray reading and recreation, and student's rest, and dormitory room, and library. All students may study there if they wish, but this is not done. The Smith-Berry Library has been provided to students who are only on point of boards in the new room.

Student Associations

Within this University and persons who are at strategic in "On Our Campus" must place their copy with the Managing Manager or the Editor by the Thursday before publication.