HARRY MEDLIN REPORTS
NATIONAL UNION CONGRESS
Great Success

The 3rd Annual Congress sponsored by the National Union of Australian University Students was held under ideal summer conditions at Tallebudgera, Queensland, from January 15 to 23 this year.

All University and nearly every faculty were represented. Congress can be claimed to be the most fruitful of the Union’s activities. With this account we hope to interest a greater proportion of Adel- istable students in Congress. Purshio published an appeal to Congress when the film made by the Department of Information is available for circulation in the Australian Union. We are preparing a film which will be shown in all universities later in the year. Do not miss this opportunity to see this record of what we, the students, are organizing on a National scale.

The eleven Adelaide students who attended all activities claim the part that Congress is playing in bringing National Unity under our Union.

Tallebudgera is the site of a National Union which housed the 380 students. The site was four- back a favorite for all of the women of the Union. "Get out of the rain," the students declared, "and claim the equal of the sun with us in the open air." Other recreational activities included day outings by bus, tennis, and other team sports.

The daily newspaper allowed of three sessions, morning, afternoon, and evening. Guest speakers for the sessions were prominent members of the Union.

The American Union of Women passed all the resolutions in uniform looking like sailors and behaving like sailors. Very little, if any, departure is permitted from orthodoxy. All education being subordinated to the needs of the faculty, we need a Union class. Keep in mind that the students are too young to be the cynical, the grumpy, the unsympathetic. Their desire to meet other students is the desire of all students in the public schools, and NOT the desire of the Union. How can we achieve this with the people of the Union’s class? By making our organization the Union. We warned that the Congress should not be entered into. We were asked to organize, to campaign through our Students, and especially Freshmen, to make the best use of the Exchange. We are a national characteristic of the Australian Union. We need more people to make our work, and we need more people to make the Freshmen, the Exchange, and the Congress.

TEXTBOOK EXCHANGE

The Textbook Exchange is open for business each morning of the 12th of January and 2 p.m. every day from Monday to Friday in the Library for- um.

There has been some confusion owing to the fact that the term "term" term is common to all. Congress is trying to avoid any possibility to put its be- liefs into practice.

Many of the books are in the exchange are left by our classmates, from January 15 to 23 this year. And other classmates whose books we are unable to sell this year may leave them with us to try and sell next year. How- ever, this year's Congress has yet to be decided.

Some are anxious—and that is what we are anxious about. When we advertise as being a national characteristic, it is necessary that the Congress should get under way and we should carry on with the Congress in the costs of paper, print, et cetera, et cetera. Finally, an appeal to students who will write for you next Congress to tell us when to expect you.
NATIONAL S.C.M. CONGRESS AT WOODSIDE

What's the use of Christianity, anyhow?" The annual A.S.C.M. Conference held at Woodside in January this year helped to answer this question and many more. The Conference was on "God's Power and Man's Predicament" and focused on the vital and urgent issues of the day.

The Conference was held for all students of universities, teachers, ministers, and people from colleges, etc., whatever their beliefs. A total of 10,000 people came from all over Australia.

The theme was "God's Power and Man's Predicament," and it was the first of its kind. The sessions were held in the Great Hall of the University, and it was the largest event of its kind, with over 10,000 people in attendance.

The event was well received, with many people coming from all over the country. It was a great success and helped to answer the question of what the role of Christianity is in the modern world.

LIBERAL U JUGGLING "Some Means Or Other"

Asking that "some means or other" be employed, Liberal Union secretary Robin Hall, writing to the S.R.C. asking that it be allowed to hook a hall already reserved by the Evangelical Union, was reported at the last meeting of the S.R.C.

The S.R.C. were to be shifted from the Lady Sympson Hall, which they had been in, to the George Murray Hall, which the Liberal Union had booked, the Liberal Union moving into the Lady Sympson Hall.

Reason given that the Liberal Union, represented also by many Nilling, Chairman of the Young Conservatives of Great Britain, to address a seminar at the Lady Sympson Hall. It was intended to book the Lady Sympson Hall, but the Liberal Union had already moved in.

It was reported that the S.R.C. was also entertaining an alternative plan, and in any case, the student activities would be with the looking system.

THOSE DIRTY LAWNS: ACTION LIKELY

"Litter and crockery left on the Refectory lawns may be the subject of drastic action this year by the S.R.C."

The Students' Representative Council wasullahed by Mr. Canuto, who explained that the lawns were completely unfriendly and that any crockery left on them would be left by the Casuals.

The council was concerned about the state of the lawns and the need for action to be taken.

THE HUTS

The huts at the camp were fairly comfortable; the picture was quite acceptable and the weather was not too bad.

We were on site early, well before the rest of the party had arrived. We managed to keep warm by drinking lots of tea and coffee and by playing cards in the huts.

The huts were well equipped and had all the necessary facilities.

In conclusion, the huts were comfortable and provided a good place to rest.

THE REAL ARMY

However, it didn't take us long after getting into camp to realize that we were in something quite different.

The unit was a real army unit, and it was a real army camp.

In short, we were in the army.

A lot of the things that we were used to doing in our normal lives were not possible in the army camp.

For the first time days we operated as a school operating most of the elementary work, ground, ground and training.

The training was very intense and we were very focused on our work.

In conclusion, the army camp was a great experience and we learned a lot.

WE ARE VENGEANCE

The rest of the week was equally interesting.

We met with a team from the Department of National Defence and we had a very interesting meeting with them.

We discussed the current political situation and the role of the army in it.

In conclusion, the army week was a very interesting experience and we learned a lot.

SCHOOL LIFE

We have had our own committee this year, and we have been working very hard to make sure that all our activities are running smoothly.

We are looking forward to a great year ahead and we hope that everyone will enjoy the activities.

UNION'S WOMEN A.G.M. AND FRESHERS' WELCOME

The Annual Women's Union A.G.M. and Fresher's Welcome was held in the Lady Sympson Hall on Thursday, March 10, at 8 p.m.

The meeting was addressed by Miss J. M. Lovelock, who introduced the new Fresher's Welcome team.

Another point that Miss. Rozy was very earnest about was the need for a reasonable fellowship amongst the Fresher's Welcome team, which is necessary for the smooth running of the event.

In conclusion, we hope that everyone enjoys the event and looks forward to next year's meeting.

UNESCO WEEK 1949

(To a Special Representative)

This week is UNESCO—no different from any other week perhaps, but a week during which it is hoped that thought of international understanding may be kindling sufficiently so as to endure for a further year.

To most people UNESCO is merely a matter for experts, but should the average person remain apathetic and allow it to slip by the experts, it is doubtful whether UNESCO's time will be saved after all. On the acceptance and pursuit by every man, woman and child of the ideals of UNESCO may well depend one stage of future war.

The services of UNESCO may some remote to Australia. Since it was founded, large-scale projects are being carried out on a considerable scale. However, one small question may serve to indicate that there is work to be done for UNESCO in Australia. Would you say, for instance, that the history books which you studied at school were entirely devoid of correlation which might prejudice you against either side on any issue? From such beginnings may grow the prejudice and international dislike which will characterize the years to come.

"AMAZED"

Dear Sir,

The first thing I was taught was that the truth of evolution. This belief is the basic premise of the soul and is supported by a large body of evidence. The second thing I was taught is that the origin of all life is a mystery. This belief is supported by a large body of evidence as well. The third thing I was taught is that the universe is infinite in size and that it is possible that there are other planets inhabited by intelligent life. This belief is also supported by a large body of evidence.

"HIMSELF"

Dear Sir,

I am writing to express my concern about the current state of our community. The recent news about a new park being proposed in our area has caused a great deal of controversy. Many people are concerned about the impact this will have on the local wildlife and the environment. It is important that we come together as a community to discuss these issues and find a solution that benefits everyone.

FOOTBALL

The Annual General Meeting of the South Australian Football League was held in Adelaide last year. The Chairman of the League reported that the meeting of the Australian Amateur Football League, held in Perth at the same time as the Carnival, had raised the question of the amateur status and the amateur definition with a view to the possible establishment of the professional grade. He discovered that the players were engaged in the mysterious and terribly serious business of trying to win games.

The league raised the question of the position of players who have previously played in League ranks, but who have more recently been playing for Amateur League sides. The League has not made up its mind on the matter, but it is likely that if that does happen the question of whether players who have previously played in League ranks shall be allowed to play in Amateur League sides will be reviewed.

The Annual General Meeting of the University Football Club was held in Adelaide last year. The meeting was held in order to consider the matter of extending the registration of the University Football Club to include Amateur League sides.
