EXTERNAL COPYRIGHT PERMISSION

Permission received 2006.

For personal use only.

Further information about the conditions of use of this item is available from Special Collections at the Barr Smith Library.
Teaching, Research Go Together

The tendency to think of teaching and research as two separate activities was a mistake, said the Chancellor of the University, Sir Melville Napier, delivering the annual commemoration address in the Bonnyton Hall last Wednesday.

The search for knowledge and of what is in the way of life-blood of the University is, he said. "The staff must be given more time to participate in research."

During the course of his address he welcomed new professors and lecturers, and showed the interest in the great field which the University had acquired with the return of Professor Campbell. He also welcomed the new Vice-Chancellor, and said that the first task performed by the Vice-Chancellor for the University College was to enable the staff and students to improve on the needs and resources of the University. This complex work took place, he said.

Student Body

The student body were "the foundation", he said, and could not cope with the number of students in the College. "The University was not in a position to give students the advantages of University teaching," he said.

What's On

MONDAY, APRIL 4th:
13-2 p.m. - All members and students are allowed to vote for the President of the University College. Polling in the Refectory.
6 p.m. - University Theatre Guild present "Thinking Makes It So" (by Finney) directed by Thelma Blandstone. In the Hut.
TUESDAY, APRIL 5th:
13-2 p.m. - Voting for Men's General Representative. In Refectory.
5 p.m. - University Theatre Guild present "Thinking Makes It So" (directed by Ralph ).
13-2 p.m. - Apolonia Society. Talk by Rev. Fr. Gabriel Garvey, C.P., "On the Fall of Man - What is Original Sin?" In Symon Hall.
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6th:
13-2 p.m. - Voting for Men's House Representative. In the Refectory.
13-2 p.m. - Public address by Dr. Peter Hamlin, Subject: "The Uses of Sex." In Symon Hall.
5 p.m. - University Theatre Guild present "Thinking Makes It So." (directed by ).
THURSDAY, APRIL 7th:
5 p.m. - Arts Association. Reprograms on "S. Prof. J. A. C. B. Ed. on "The University Theatre Guild."
FRIDAY, APRIL 8th:
5 p.m. - Arts Association. Reprograms on "S. Prof. J. A. C. B. Ed. on "The University Theatre Guild."
SATURDAY, APRIL 9th:
5 p.m. - Arts Association. Reprograms on "S. Prof. J. A. C. B. Ed. on "The University Theatre Guild."
MONDAY, APRIL 11th:
6-7 p.m. - All members welcome. Lady Symon Hall.

HERMES FOR N.Z.

Local Boy Makes Good

Clarrie Hermes, N.U.A.2S. Debate Society, has been selected to tour New Zealand in May with the Australian National Debating team.

The team will have three members, members, Adelaide law student, and a second-year law student, proceeding to higher degrees in the University and University College. They will be away about one month.

The tour, which has been arranged by the N.U.A.2S. in conjunction with the N.Z.F.E.

S.C.R.U.B. H.O., M.E. HEARTIES: First year medical students Walls and Kennedy partake of a little dinner. Invitation being read in front of the senior girls' last night at the Adelaide Hospital. (Photo by Jim Wallman.)

Which Witch?

The A.C.M. of the S.C.R.U.B. Witches, which club was held in the Refectory on April 3rd, had a general meeting. The meeting was adjourned to another date.

By-elections

Only two of the five nominations for the vacancy of the student representative were on the ballot. The student representative was retired, and there were Alan Kennedy and Frank Wetherall, both arts students. The nomination of one candidate, Downey (Science), was withdrawn. At the nominations, a group of students, mainly from the freshman class, appeared to be dissatisfied with the new system of representation and decided to contest the election. The candidates who contested the election were:

- Frank Wetherall
- Alan Kennedy
- Downey

See Statements of Policy and Editorial, page 4

STORM IN WEST OVER U.S.

S.A. Favors Disaffiliation

In the greatest burst of student activity yet experienced on the U.S. disaffiliation issue, at least 50 persons were present at the meeting held in the Refectory on April 3rd.

The meeting was called to order, and the following resolution was passed:

"That this meeting of the University College disaffiliates from the University of Wisconsin and the Council of Androra.

Hear the Profs.

On Thursday night, April 7th, there will be a Symposium of Professors in the Refectory on the subject of "The University Theatre Guild."

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Any former students who have attended the University of Wisconsin are invited to attend this meeting. The meeting will be open to the public.

WARNING

Student members of the University are warned that disciplinary action will be taken if they are found failure to return any papers taken from the Refectory or to the University. Students are also warned to remove all paper from their offices.

ELIZABETH ADAM, Secretary, N.U.A.2S.
HINTS FOR HITCHERS
By Edna Loring (1909-1948, Queensland)

Method of hitching a ride:

1. You appear a trustworthy hitchhiker, with a road map and a car夫or use
2. Ask if you can see what you like to
3. You are "on the road" and have a car
4. Ask what you can do to help you

Shortest Presidential Address

By Bobbi Ashlin

What could be the shortest presidential address ever recorded, and the man who accomplished it? It was delivered by President Zog in the United States. His speech lasted less than a second.

He was from the chit-chat world of television, where he tried to imagine the President and Liberal Eastern 70 was, but you could never fancifully regale ize. However, the highlight of his speech was the President, a man of brilliant wit and eloquence, whose words poured out with the same precision as the

Commencement Answer

When the Editorial appearing in the paper of "On Dit" (1944) referred to the costs made for admission to the Commencement, the Revue was questioned. It was pointed out that the increase in the price of admission was not the result of any action by the University.

Newfoundland

During the 1944-45 vacancy, the National Union was not able to elect a Constitution to the New Union for St. Aveline

The Constitution, as a result of the union's financial difficulties was

New Guinea Next

Indications have been made that the Union's financial difficulties are

SPECIAL EMPLOYMENT EXCHANGE

Special employment problems are handled by the Special Employment Division. During 1944-45, the Division

Revue Auditions

The "Flights Institute - "Club" will be holding auditions the week next, in order to determine whether the students are up to the

For Sale - International University's

Construction of new dormitories has

W.E.A. BOOKROOM

PHYSICAL: ORGANISED CHEMISTRY 15/6
PHYSICAL: CHEMISTRY OF METALLIC CATE
15/6

POETRY 30/6
GEORGIA 30/6
OSCAR CAMBRIDGE HISTORY OF ENGLISH
15/6
TECHNIQUE TITLES AND SCIENTIFIC

Western University
C. 15 355

This material is protected by copyright. No portion of it may be copied, reproduced, or transmitted in any form without prior written approval. For permission, please contact the copyright owner.
National Union Congress
Bray Reports Debate

The record of debates from the 13th annual Council meeting has just been received, and Bill Bray, the local Secretary-Treasurer of N.D.I.A.S., has selected those portions which concern us most.

The record of debate has now reached its last section, and the next section is due for presentation in the next issue. Bray has included several important observations which can be read.

Firstly, Council supported the resolution that the 10th Annual Congress hold its annual meeting in London. However, proposals to that effect have been rejected by the N.D.I.A.S., and the N.C.C. has not been informed of the resolution. This gives the appearance of a lack of communication, and the N.D.I.A.S. should be informed of any future meetings which may be held on an independent basis.

Finance
Council passed a motion regarding the preparation of a constitution for the N.C.C., which gives the N.D.I.A.S. an entirely different position in the Student Union movement. The constitution was reduced from 50 to 25 pages, and the N.C.C. activities were put on an independent basis.

This gives the appearance of a lack of communication, and the N.D.I.A.S. should be informed of any future meetings which may be held on an independent basis.

C.R.T.S. and C.F.A.S.
Council passed a resolution regarding the constitution of the C.R.T.S. and C.F.A.S. The constitution was reduced from 50 to 25 pages, and the N.C.C. activities were put on a separate basis.

This gives the appearance of a lack of communication, and the N.D.I.A.S. should be informed of any future meetings which may be held on an independent basis.

Other Activities
Under this heading, the N.D.I.A.S. decided to widen its area of activities to include Youth Caucuses, (M.C.'s), and Youth Congress in conjunction with the N.C.C.

This gives the appearance of a lack of communication, and the N.D.I.A.S. should be informed of any future meetings which may be held on an independent basis.

I.U.S. Relief
The Student News and Welfare Department of the National Union Congress is at present organizing the distribution of food and clothing to the relief activities of the I.U.S. relief campaign, which has so far been very successful. The campaign has raised over £20,000 for the relief of famine victims in India, and is continuing to raise funds for other relief activities.

£20

A student raised at the meeting was the £20 which was allocated to the Student Union Congress for the relief of famine victims in India.

I.U.S. MEETS IN PRAGUE

The President of the Executive Committee of the International Union of Students met in Prague in January, to discuss the future of the I.U.S. and its activities.

The Executive Committee discussed the possibility of organizing a meeting in Prague to discuss the future of the I.U.S. and its activities. The meeting was attended by representatives from several countries, including Australia, New Zealand, India, and South Africa.

Youth Congress
A Youth Congress was also held in conjunction with the I.U.S. meeting in Prague. The Congress was attended by representatives from several countries, including Australia, New Zealand, India, and South Africa.

The Congress discussed the possibility of organizing a meeting in Prague to discuss the future of the I.U.S. and its activities. The meeting was attended by representatives from several countries, including Australia, New Zealand, India, and South Africa.

I.U.S. Relief
The Student News and Welfare Department of the National Union Congress is at present organizing the distribution of food and clothing to the relief activities of the I.U.S. relief campaign, which has so far been very successful. The campaign has raised over £20,000 for the relief of famine victims in India, and is continuing to raise funds for other relief activities.
EDITORIAL
A Golden Opportunity

THE society of members of the Faculty of Agriculture Science, Forestry and Zoology towards elections for the Students’ Representative Council could have met undisabered effects on the student administration in this University.
Two important constituencies, the Faculty of Agriculture members to elections to the council, whose, by the way, the spent 25,000 of were 250,000 of students, would not have been free to its 100,000 influence of the fact that the members of the Faculty of Agriculture that the councillors have failed to see that candidates of any kind have not been nominated.
What a golden opportunity for a political or religious pres-
gure group to nominate a person to act in their obvious interests
On formalities.
In the synthetic faculties, the situation would be ameliorated, and would avoid a great deal that party and society-nomination. In the social sciences, it is not possible, on the other hand.
That is to say, the society, and groups of students with the interests of the Faculty of Agriculture, in connection with administration of student affairs, may not allow the faculty to be used as a theme for the stimulation of a political or religious agitator.

THE EDITOR

Social Science National Faculty
Bureau

By Aleyo M. K. Gow

The system of National Faculty Bureaus was first instituted last year following the 1948 M.U.A.C. Conference. It was informed that some members were unhappy with the Director of Faculty Bureaus on the policies of forcing the students to attend political meetings and of Professor’s efforts to discuss, and with real enthusiasm from the students.
The National Bureau was therefore officially for the remainder of the year.

The site of the National Bureau is generally this—To
by the University of Sydney and Melbourne. In the Faculty Bureau Season at the 1949 Congress, the annually issued the questionnaire for the following each issue of the National Faculty Bureaus, and
in the social sciences.

We are very pleased to have our Lecturers-in-charge, Mr.
W. Wharton, on the committees in an advisory capacity, as we have noted when their assistance has been essential to the members of the Faculty of Agriculture. As we have noted, this has been to the benefit of the students and the University.

One or two of the problems we have worked to tackle,
and which we are aware of, are not easy to solve.
Other activities will increase the possibilities and development of an information service to students, to be of help to meet students’
willing to be trained to train, the issue of publications
the production of the National Faculty Bureaus.

THE EDITOR

F. B. Power

My apologies are not ready, not the whole question of the social sciences, and it is such a subject which is under discussion.

It seems necessary to discuss the possibilities of the demonstrations and vocal groups which are now under discussion, and with real enthusiasm from the students.
The National Bureau was therefore officially for the remainder of the year.

The site of the National Bureau is generally this—To
by the University of Sydney and Melbourne. In the Faculty Bureau Season at the 1949 Congress, the annually issued the questionnaire for the following
each issue of the National Faculty Bureaus, and
in the social sciences.

We are very pleased to have our Lecturers-in-charge, Mr.
W. Wharton, on the committees in an advisory capacity, as we have noted when their assistance has been essential to the members of the Faculty of Agriculture. As we have noted, this has been to the benefit of the students
and the University.

One or two of the problems we have worked to tackle,
and which we are aware of, are not easy to solve.
Other activities will increase the possibilities and development of an information service to students, to be of help to meet students’
willing to be trained to train, the issue of publications
the production of the National Faculty Bureaus.

THE EDITOR

Hey, Sports!

Sports writers are wanted to forward write-ups, programs, and other related material from each week uniting from the various sports events. We would like to encourage to embark on a journalistic interest with the student press. Are you interested in writing for the
"On the Air" section? Let the Student Editor know. ("On the Air"

THE EDITOR

Medical Students!!

Watson London Service and King Microscopes

Diagnostic and Dissecting Instruments

For these and other Scientific Requirements, see

WATSON VICTOR LTD.

WATSON HOUSE, NORTH STACEY (opp. University) C. 3232

contributors

Plastic, rubber, paper, photographs, letters, etc., as early as possible. If publication is desired for the forthcoming Monday’s is-

THE JOURNALS OF ANDRE GIDE:
AN APPRECIATION

Introspection is a habit of the present day, and one which is most mistrusted. Any man who is interested in the working of his own mind runs the risk of being called an egotist, absorbed in the contemplation of himself because he admires himself. Very often this is the exact opposite of truth; it is the purest and most artistic form of self-interest, and one which he is justified in developing, and one that finds in study of himself the best expression of his weakness and strength.

The journals of Andre Gide, new translated by Jus- tine de Margerie, are an authentic record of the actions and thoughts of one of the greatest of European men of letters of our time. They contain the entire self-analysis, the passion, the pride, and the self-confidence which has appeared since Mr. Bertheau of Manrique and Ira Samson, both anthropologists, rediscovered and emphasized Gide's life has been most revealing and forcibly lived to be had in his own hands of himself to help himself, and mark the search for himself to help others.

"I tend to give to those who are least likely to think in terms of cause, chance and per- ceptibility, but if anyone will care to be careful to give them their due, I will say in defense that they can and must find them only by themselves. Do- not let me say that I am making the critical and the cause of the critical and the cause of the cause, because I am not speaking of cause, but of the critical and the critical of the critical of the critical of the cause of the cause."

Do not let me say that I am making the critical of the critical of the critical of the cause of the cause. Do not let me say that I am making the critical of the critical of the cause of the cause.

The journals, which are a complete collection of the critical and the cause of the critical of the cause of the cause, as well as the cause of the critical of the cause of the cause, are now published in one volume.

The journals, which are a complete collection of the critical and the cause of the critical of the cause of the cause, as well as the cause of the critical of the cause of the cause, are now published in one volume.

More Waugh.

Mr. Evelyn Waugh is an Englishman, as strange a contradiction as one can imagine. It is surprising but true, that when his novels are set 'at home' no one is interested in his contemporary, but when they are set in the jungle, or in the, say, in the Congo, or in the, say, in the Congo.

More Waugh.

Mr. Evelyn Waugh is an Englishman, as strange a contradiction as one can imagine. It is surprising but true, that when his novels are set 'at home' no one is interested in his contemporary, but when they are set in the jungle, or in the, say, in the Congo, or in the, say, in the Congo.

MORE WAUGH ...

Mr. Evelyn Waugh is an Englishman, as strange a contradiction as one can imagine. It is surprising but true, that when his novels are set 'at home' no one is interested in his contemporary, but when they are set in the jungle, or in the, say, in the Congo, or in the, say, in the Congo.

MORE WAUGH ...

Mr. Evelyn Waugh is an Englishman, as strange a contradiction as one can imagine. It is surprising but true, that when his novels are set 'at home' no one is interested in his contemporary, but when they are set in the jungle, or in the, say, in the Congo, or in the, say, in the Congo.

university foottlights club booking agency leave entertainment worries to the footlights for your faculty or club dance use the footlights orchestra or revue apres for a floor show renowned that the best is the best orchestra in town.

Another aspect of the film is the music, which is not only an integral part of the film but also a major element in its impact. The music often enhances the emotional and dramatic elements of the film, adding depth and layers to the narrative. It can be used to create a sense of mood, atmosphere, and tension. In many cases, the music is composed specifically for the film, creating a unique and immersive experience for the audience. The interplay between the visual elements and the musical score is crucial in creating a cohesive and effective cinematic experience.
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Contributors are reminded to write on one side only, and to paper only. Keep it brief. No more than 300 words. Contributions from new authors' names must be available, although non-annotated and publication. Correspondents failing to comply with the foregoing requests may abandon hope of getting their poems in print.

Query Sir,—On this vital question of the J. A. S. N, I have never heard anything from the Secretary, Mr. J. A. S. N., even when our meeting was held on Mr. D. J. S. N., who, as President, vacated the chair and informed us of his opinion. It is too late for Mr. D. J. S. N. to redeem his promise, but could he not use his columns for a similar purpose? He is the only one present, and we all would appreciate his opinion, even if he declines to act on the suggestion. He can't sit on the fence any longer.

It would be interesting to know the present state of your delegates at N.A.D.U. on this question, and publish them in your columns also? How many of your members are interested in Mr. H. M. N., who recently secured the majority of students' votes?

T. R. G.

Sex and Politics Sir,—Once again it appears in your columns the Press of Evan, W. Wilson ("On DL, May 24"). He would have the reader along to that antinullification group of which we are all a part, that, to criticise any moral and social positions, says, 'What the Regent's Park-Parlour, Evenshaw's, or any other paradelle of male and female moralists through its official organ. All that the argument is that it is to be a matter of personal opinion. In the light of the fact that the greatest consideration of the Sex is the individual's freedom to choose his companion. He is not to be forced to submit his will to the will of another. In the light of the fact that the greatest consideration of the Sex is the individual's freedom to choose his companion. He is not to be forced to submit his will to the will of another.

In conclusion, I should like to say that I do not believe in the greatest freedom for the right to choose his own lover.

C. B. L.

SHADE OF JOHN WILKES

Reporter Flayed Sir,—"Your story" on the front page of your paper for the week ending May 24 was very well done, but I think you might consider making some changes in the editorial column of the following issue.

1. "The House of Lords" should be replaced with "The House of Commons".
2. "The House of Commons" should be replaced with "The House of Lords".
3. "The House of Commons" should be replaced with "The House of Lords".
4. "The House of Lords" should be replaced with "The House of Commons".

It would be painful to detail the many errors in the above sentences, but I shall omit them for the sake of brevity.

Mr. Wilson's words were also done with tact, and I think it is a matter of regret that he did not use more of them. I have often quoted Mr. Wilson to my friends, and I think it is a matter of regret that he did not use more of them.

Music Lover

Robert Donaldson

An Opinion on "Liberal Opinion" Sir,—In response to the "Liberal Opinion" debate in The Spectator (May 24), I would like to express my views on the subject.

I believe that the "Liberal Opinion" debate is an important one, and that it is essential to have a clear understanding of the issues involved. I would like to make a few points about this debate.

Firstly, I would like to address the issue of the "Liberal Opinion" debate. I believe that this debate is important, and that it is essential to have a clear understanding of the issues involved. I would like to make a few points about this debate.

Secondly, I would like to address the issue of the "Liberal Opinion" debate. I believe that this debate is important, and that it is essential to have a clear understanding of the issues involved. I would like to make a few points about this debate.

Thirdly, I would like to address the issue of the "Liberal Opinion" debate. I believe that this debate is important, and that it is essential to have a clear understanding of the issues involved. I would like to make a few points about this debate.

Finally, I would like to address the issue of the "Liberal Opinion" debate. I believe that this debate is important, and that it is essential to have a clear understanding of the issues involved. I would like to make a few points about this debate.

I hope that these points will be helpful in understanding the issues involved in the "Liberal Opinion" debate. I believe that it is important to have a clear understanding of the issues involved, and I hope that these points will be helpful in this regard.

Thomson Replied Sir,—The front page Referent article in your last issue left me wondering if that member of the Socialists, Mr. G. E. S., has the last word in it. Is it a personal spite that he is the only one who never wins the chance to have the last word in his columns? I am pleased to know that he can always rely on "On DL, May 24."
Council

Administrations

Dr. I doubt strongly that the student government in the form of the Student Senate, as it now exists, is the best method of handling the affairs of the University. It would be more efficient and economical to have a council or commission composed of faculty members, student representatives, and other interested parties, working together to make the decisions that affect the university.

M. E. GILES

Maze

Not So Maze

The statement by E. E. E. about the maze being difficult to navigate is quite inaccurate. In fact, the maze is quite easy to navigate, as long as one takes the time to study the map and follow the designated paths. It is also important to note that the maze is not a symbol of confusion or complexity, but rather a representation of the intricate and interconnected nature of the university's systems and processes.

R. L. TOLMIE

I.U.S. Article

Attacked

The article by J. K.攻击了 the article in The Graduate Student Newsletter about the lack of resources and the need for improvement in the graduate student experience. The author of the article for The Graduate Student Newsletter is mistaken in believing that the graduate students are satisfied with the current situation. The majority of graduate students I have spoken to express frustration and disappointment with the lack of resources and support available to them.

A. C. WILLIAMS

The report of the I.U.S. Graduate Senate is quite concerning. The lack of funding and support for graduate students is a significant problem that needs to be addressed. The Graduate Student Senate should be working closely with the administration to ensure that graduate students have the resources they need to succeed.

R. L. MOLLOY

The President Replies...To Thompson

Dr. Thompson's comments about the lack of resources and support for graduate students are valid. The University should provide adequate funding and support to ensure that graduate students have the resources they need to succeed. The Graduate Student Senate should be working with the administration to address these issues.

J. K.

S.R.C. in Camera

Sessions

The S.R.C. meetings are an important opportunity for students to discuss and influence the policies and decisions that affect their daily lives. The S.R.C. should continue to be transparent and inclusive, allowing all students to have a voice in the decision-making process.

J. S. MILL

Reply

The response to the recent S.R.C. meeting is quite interesting. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

"Therm Chairs"

Dr. Thompson's argument about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

Forbes

The article by J. K. about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

General Representative

Dr. Thompson's argument about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

"Therm Chairs"

Dr. Thompson's argument about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

Forbes

The article by J. K. about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

General Representative

Dr. Thompson's argument about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

"Therm Chairs"

Dr. Thompson's argument about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

Forbes

The article by J. K. about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

General Representative

Dr. Thompson's argument about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

"Therm Chairs"

Dr. Thompson's argument about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

Forbes

The article by J. K. about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

General Representative

Dr. Thompson's argument about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

"Therm Chairs"

Dr. Thompson's argument about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.

J. S. MILL

Forbes

The article by J. K. about the need for more student involvement in decision-making processes is quite valid. The University should be more transparent and inclusive in its decision-making processes, allowing all students to have a voice in the decisions that affect their daily lives.
THE DUDGEON OF WILLOW, brillian...