TALK BY PROF. MANSERGH

Professor Niall Mansergh, O.B.E., B.A. (1914), M.A. DPhil, will address students in the George Library Ball at 8 p.m. on Friday, March 14. This will be the first of this year’s addresses by prominent visitors, sponsored under the new S.U.C. plan, for more and better lunch-hour activities.

Professor Mansergh, who is Chairman of the University’s Board of Studies in the History of Science, has been a member of the University’s staff for many years and has been a long-time member of the academic staff at Christ’s College, Cambridge, where he was Head of the History of Science Department for many years. He was educated at a number of Oxford and Cambridge, and has been a member of the University’s Board of Studies in the History of Science for many years.

His address will be on the topic of “The Development of the University of Oxford: A Study of Its History.”

WOMEN EVICT SCM AND LIBS

“BLACKMAIL,” SAYS WOMEN’S SEC.

The 1951 academic year begins with the biggest change in the past five years. The Women’s Union Committee has challenged the SCM, the Liberal Union, and the S.C.M. in a duel to the death. (Whose is the red carpet we don’t know.) The Women’s Union Committee has decided to evict the SCM and the Liberal Union from the offices occupied by these bodies in the Lady Sydenham Building for the past three years.

The W.L. Secretary (Miss Noël Neilson), has accused Liberal President (Jen Marchant) of blackmail tactics, and Marchant has replied by circulating a petition for a Special General Meeting of students to consider the matter. This meeting will probably be held on Monday, March 15.

The reasons given for this are as follows: “There is no need for the Women’s Union to evict the SCM and the Liberal Union from their offices. The Women’s Union Committee is merely attempting to reclaim the Lady Sydenham Building which was granted to the SCM and the Liberal Union on a temporary basis.”

Miss Neilson, President of the Women’s Union and final year student in English, said: “We will evict the SCM and the Liberal Union from their offices in the Lady Sydenham Building. This is a temporary move to reclaim the building which was granted to the SCM and the Liberal Union on a temporary basis.”

TREACHERY?

“Proprio, the SCM and the Liberal Union are Conservative clubs and would probably be far more likely to start a new club than an independent club. The S.U.C. is a political club and would probably start a new club. The Women’s Union Committee is a political club and would probably start a new club. Refectory Prices

Manager Explains

Prices for food items in the Union, Refectory, and Restaurants will be considerably higher in 1951 owing to recent wage increases. The policy of the Union Council is, however, to maintain prices at a level which will enable the Refectory “to break even” and still provide students with reasonably priced meals.

Inter Jorge last week pointed out the drastic increase in prices in the Refectory. Manager, Mr. McEvoy, gave the following figures:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Item</th>
<th>1950 Price</th>
<th>1951 Price</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Coffee</td>
<td>10p</td>
<td>15p</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bread</td>
<td>1p</td>
<td>1.5p</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Meat</td>
<td>1.5p</td>
<td>2.0p</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vegetables</td>
<td>0.5p</td>
<td>0.75p</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fruits</td>
<td>0.25p</td>
<td>0.35p</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In addition to this factor, the cost of food and general supplies, the prices of which have also risen considerably, has increased by 21 per cent. Prices and wages have increased in a number of cases, and, in the case of the Refectory, the prices may rise as much as 30 per cent. With the increase in the cost of living, the prices of food and general supplies, the prices of which have also risen considerably, have increased by 21 per cent.

Committee to speak on this as a group, especially as there are good reasons for it. He went on to say: “We should expect the Refectory to be open for a number of meals per week.”

A close survey of the three main restaurants shows that prices have increased by 20 per cent, 22 per cent, and 27 per cent.

Refectory manager also mentioned the increase in the cost of living, which has increased by 20 per cent, 22 per cent, and 27 per cent, and the wages of staff, which have increased by 21 per cent.

"A Slab of Slush..."

As another year commences in the shadowy annals of academic seduction, and another volume of "On Dit" unfolds itself before the expectant eyes of the upper, innocent, slumber-walkers in this happy heavenland, we state our policy in time-honoured fashion.

We see the function of this student paper as a journal of student activity, a forum for student opinion in all its manifold heterogeneity and a medium for student writing, criticism and poetry in all its heterogeneous miscellany.

Of policy we shall have none. We shall take on the task of "The Fair Play Flag" in this noble metropolis. As private citizens we have (at least Schumann has) our own political beliefs, but as editors we see our role as the impartial chroniclers of events and opinions—ours not to reason why. We are the first Immortals—we prefer to await Death in Comfort.

To those of you who are young and have broad wings we open the pages of this paper. To those of you who, having lived too long within our walls and without, have come upon the contesting autumn glory of acquired cynicism, we give you the paper to do with what you will.

"There have been so many gods that now there are none. Then the One God, made a monoply of it. He was out, so now we are gods and unbeliever!"

From you we all invite your pearls for scattering in the customary customary. One condition, however, we do impose, that you should recognize and observe the Common Law and Statutes relating to Libel. We prefer our power With Glory. Finally let us warn:

"Put wisely, walk wisely, be careful what you say: measure not the Sanderies are burning row, the Divides are close upon us, digging our every step and bearing our great wings in our pinning to...

ON DIT

"1951 S.R.C."

In the Handbook, which all Freshers should have received by now, you will find a section devoted to the Students' Representative Council. This is a mysterious body which never does anything, and when they do, it's always wrong, as you will undoubtedly be told.

It will not be necessary to register here or to send any money, as you will already have paid the Handbook Fee on enrolment. This little article is in apposition with the Handbook Fee.

If you have any questions or are interested in the Students' Representative Council, come along to their meeting on Tuesday night, March 4. There you will always be some people who want to hear what you want to tell them. If you really want to meet these sights, come along.

Debates

Debute

The shadows on the trees are wist and the stars wash the corners of the sky with pruneness and with crimson. The night is old yet. Let me be blazent, dear boy, or I shall walk- But lo!-what cause for their weariness, and are, as many have died, with all my vigour unanswerable. I shall stand all night for you, Jeffrey, saying and serving thing to such as the weatherbeaten clocks of dawn and breathing planks of aphorisms with a faint smell of patchouli about them...

Thus, Roger One, exuding University's great hope for the future of the Debating Club, which is to be held in the Union, University Avenue, on Albert Street, on March 7.

The subject of items, the first official vicar's of the reformed University, who will preside over the occasion, will be a topic on which all the participants will be able to express their opinions. The debate will take place in the hall of the University, which is usually used for social events.

The first round of the debate will start at 8 p.m., with the second round to follow at 9 p.m. The debate will be moderated by Professor Blackmun, who will be assisted by Professor Blackmun, who will also serve as the judge of the debate.

The debate will be open to the public, and tickets will be available at the entrance of the hall. The cost of admission will be $1 per person, with a $5 discount for students with valid student IDs.

The debate will be recorded and will be available for viewing online after the event. The University's Debating Club has been in existence for over 50 years, and it is one of the oldest and most prestigious debating clubs in the country.

The debate will be followed by a networking event, where participants and guests can meet and mingle over drinks and snacks. The networking event will start at 10 p.m., and it will last until 11 p.m.

The debate is open to the public, and it is free to attend. However, donations are welcome to support the University's Debating Club and its activities. Donations can be made online through the University's website or in person at the entrance of the hall.

The debate is part of the University's celebration of its 50th anniversary, and it is one of the many events that will be held throughout the year. The University's Debating Club is proud to host this event and looks forward to seeing you all there.
