FREE PROSH '71 PROUDLY PRESENTS:

THE SADVERTISER

WHAT THE CRITICS SAY:

“Heralds a new era in student publications”: The Australian. “Proshization seems to be going well”: Richard Nixon.

“Stunning . . .”: Times Literary Supplement. “I’d rather be dumb and clean than smart and dirty anytime”: Helen Caterer.

“Comic book for 7 year old grandpas and 70 year old babies”: Jerry Rubin. “. . . flows out like poetic garbage.”: Abbie Hoffman.

“Will cause even more students to stagnate and generally go to pot”: Silverblade. “Get it while you can”: Pearl.

“Will not allow any of the players to read it before the big match on Saturday”: Neil Kerley. “T. F. Much” Rimas.

“Proletarian literature is part of the whole proletarian revolutionary cause”: Chairman Mao.

“I found the tips on ping-pong particularly helpful. Must show it to Mr. Bury”: Billy (The Kid) McMahon.

“The time has come for an end to patience. The time has come for us to demand in the strongest possible terms, that university officials, local law enforcement officers and local courts apply the law”: John Mitchel (US Attorney General).

“As I was not here for the sneak previews, I can only presume that . . . er . . . not bad . . . er . . . right on?”: D. Dunstan.

“We’ll make sure it doesn’t get past the first editors”: Moral Action League.

“A publication for the countryside which brings to the peasant class a message from their companions in all the free zones who have already felt the beneficent effects of the revolution”: Che.

“... a revised report of the present state of the shrinking world”: Lawrance Ferlinghetti.

THIS IS THE LAND OF THE FREE
FREE MEANS YOU DON'T PAY

"Dig the geography of a university. You can always tell what the rulers have up their sleeves when you check out the physical environment they create. The buildings tell you to behave. Then there is less need for burdensome rules and cops. They designed classrooms so that students sit in rooms one after the other, hierarchically facing the professor who stands up front talking to all of them. Classrooms say:

- "Listen to the Professor."
- "He teaches you."
- "Keep your place."
- "Don't stretch out."
- "Don't lie on the floor."
- "Don’t relax."
- "Don’t speak out of turn."
- "Don’t take off your clothes."
- "Don’t get emotional."
- "Let the mind rule the body."
- "Let the needs of the classroom rule the mind."
Classrooms are totalitarian environments. The main purpose of school and education in America is to force you to accept and love authority, and distrust your own spontaneity and emotions."

JERRY RUBIN.

What is more relevant? Boring study, or living? Free Prosh is going to give you the opportunity to live: it’s up to you. We are going to throw off the passive role of students and start to do the things we’ve always wanted to do. We’re going to be cowboys, pirates, princesses, gypsies, longs, spacemen, supermen, Fidel, cloths, tarzans, policemen, boy scouts, Hells Angels, nuts, humans... We are going to create and communicate. No more shit. We’re going to make the university relevant. We will expose racism and the other evils of society. We’re going to zap out of our prisons and smile and say ‘Hello’ to everyone and not get uptight about strangers. There’s more in life than lectures and beer. No more rin-offs! This is going to be one hell of a trip. We are the entertainment. The barrier between artist and audience is shit propagated by artists on ego-trips. Let’s live by the politics of ecstasy.

You are the stage.
You are the actor.
Everything is for real.
There is no audience.

The only expert is the person who DOES it. Free Prosh is only the beginning... .
