The University of Adelaide, by the established responsible professors, is able to present to the public a series of public lectures, and the number of persons who have attended them has been very large. The following are some of the subjects which have been lectured on:

- 1st, the history of the University
- 2nd, the constitution of the University
- 3rd, the education of the students
- 4th, the progress of science in the University

The University has a large number of students, and the town is full of people who have come to attend the lectures. The University is also well provided with libraries and other facilities for the education of its students.