Register 30th July

Reg. 3rd July 1903.

TOPOGRAPHY OF THE DAYS.

MANNERS ARE NOT TAUGHT.

"Manners make man," declared an ancient philosopher. We may not be so much at a loss nowadays as to the average trend of modern manners as they are observed at public gatherings connected with any of our universities; but it is to be considered orthodox for the young gentleman to behave invariably at Conservatoire, performances, and other official ceremonies. The idea of a young man appearing to be in a hurry to get through the orchestra, or to wait for his companion, is looked upon with a certain amount of official disapproval, although they may possibly sometimes be a bit late. In the case of Sir Thomas Elder and his friends, it would be considered extremely bad manners.

UNDERGRADUATES AND DECILITIANS.

At the university, Sir Thomas Elder made a very considerable difference. Among the students who are associated with him, there is a certain amount of anxiety during the summer vacation, when many of the students are away from the university, and it is pleasant to be able to state that the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct.

One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.

- University Graduates and Leonards.-

The university is an excellent place, and many interesting spectacles are to be seen there. Among the students present, there was a very fine collection of students, and the university has no reason to make any complaint about the students' conduct. One day these young "pedigrees," as they are called, assembled in the great hall of the university, and there was a very fine collection of students present. They were of various ages and from various parts of the country, but all were united in their love for the university.