Our teacher training conditions are the same as the rest, but with a brighter outlook. The local government has made it clear that they wish to improve the conditions of the teachers and teaching staffs. They have offered to provide a better salary and better working conditions for the teachers.}

The new regulations also state that the teachers shall be given more freedom in their work. They are no longer bound to follow the rigid rules of the old system. They can now make their own decisions and take their own initiatives.}

The opening ceremony took place in the Town Hall. The Prime Minister, Mr. W. P. Pemberton, gave a speech in which he congratulated the teachers on their achievements and wished them success in the future. The Minister of Education, Mr. J. Bannister, also delivered a speech, in which he spoke of the importance of education and the need for better training of teachers.}

The teachers were dressed in their best attire and paraded through the streets of the town. The schoolchildren lined the streets to watch the procession. The streets were decorated with flags and bunting. The atmosphere was one of joy and excitement.

The ceremony was followed by a reception for the teachers and their families. The guests were served a sumptuous meal and there were speeches in their honor. The evening ended with a dance.
