ADELAIDE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The annual general meeting of the Adelaide Chamber of Commerce was held at the Railway Hotel, Rundle Street, at 8 p.m. on Thursday, 28th April, 1903. The President (Mr. J. H. C. Wills) (in the chair) said there were 43 members present. The general committee, in presenting the report of the year ended 30th June, 1903, stated that all the work of the chamber had been done to the best of their ability, and that under the circumstances of the year, the work done was most satisfactory. The committee would welcome any suggestions for improvements in the chamber's work, and would be glad to assist any member in any way they could. The Secretary (Mr. W. H. Bonham) stated that the chamber had 123 members at the present time. The book balance on the 30th June, 1903, was £930 10s. 4d. The committee recommended the adoption of the report and the resolution of the committee. The resolution was carried unanimously.
