A LECTURE ON OXFORD

The Rhodes Scholarships

An interesting lecture on the Rhodes Scholarships for University life at Oxford was given by Mr. E. F. Denyer, D.A., in the School Hall on Thursday last. The Bishop of Adelaide presided at the meeting, which was attended by Professor Peter and Prince Alfred College, and the lecture was followed by a discussion at which Mr. Denyer took part.

The lecturer gave an account of the origin of the scholarships and their connection with the Oxford University. He also mentioned the fact that the scholarships were awarded to students who had shown great promise in any branch of study, and that the scholarship would be held for three years.

The lecturer concluded by saying that the Rhodes Scholarships were a great honour to the students who received them, and that they would be an encouragement to others to strive for excellence in their studies.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION LECTURES

Professor Keene, M.A. Sec. Advised the second annual meeting of the University Extension Committee on Thursday evening before a large and appreciative audience.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. H. W. Keene, M.A., who said that the object of the extension committee was to bring the University to the people, and to enable them to take part in the work of the University.

The President then introduced the lecturer, who gave a vivid account of the work of the University. He also discussed the importance of the extension committee, and said that it was their duty to cultivate the love of learning among the people.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 p.m.

UNIVERSITY UNIVERSITY EXTENSION LECTURES

Professor Keene, M.A. Sec. Advised the second annual meeting of the University Extension Committee on Thursday evening before a large and appreciative audience.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. H. W. Keene, M.A., who said that the object of the extension committee was to bring the University to the people, and to enable them to take part in the work of the University.

The President then introduced the lecturer, who gave a vivid account of the work of the University. He also discussed the importance of the extension committee, and said that it was their duty to cultivate the love of learning among the people.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 p.m.

Ad. 23 Aug. 1902

Ad 23rd Aug. 1902

The University authorities have requested Professor Franklin Peterson, of Melbourne, for an extended examination, which has been granted by the University with great satisfaction.

The examination was held on Thursday evening, and was conducted by Mr. H. W. Keene, M.A., the President of the University.

The meeting was well attended, and the students showed great interest in the proceedings.

Professor Peterson gave a vivid account of the work of the University, and discussed the importance of the extension committee, and said that it was their duty to cultivate the love of learning among the people.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 p.m.

Reg. 23rd Sept. 1902

Reg. 26th Sept. 1902

ELDER CONSERVATORIUM

The Fourth Annual General Meeting of the Elder Conservatorium was held on Saturday evening, when a number of important resolutions were passed, including the adoption of new rules for the regulation of the institution. The resolutions were carried unanimously.

The programme for the evening was arranged to suit the tastes of all who were present, and included a number of interesting and informative addresses.

The meeting was well attended, and the students showed great interest in the proceedings.

Professor Peterson gave a vivid account of the work of the University, and discussed the importance of the extension committee, and said that it was their duty to cultivate the love of learning among the people.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 p.m.

Reg. 23rd Sept. 1902

Reg. 26th Sept. 1902