A STATE UNIVERSITY.

MEETING IN SUPPORT OF THE MOVEMENT.

INTERESTING SPEECHES.

A meeting in connexion with the movement for the establishment of a State University took place at the Queen's Hall last night. The meeting included members of Parliament, educationalists, representatives of educational associations, and representatives of the professions.

Dr. J. W. Hackett, M.L.C., chairman of the meeting, said that he had no personal interest in the movement, but that the time had come when the people of Western Australia should unite for the establishment of a State University. He said that he had visited many universities in the United States, and that the universities of Western Australia should be a credit to the Commonwealth.

Dr. Hackett then introduced Mr. W. O. Bridge, who said that the time had come when the people of Western Australia should unite for the establishment of a State University. He said that the universities of Western Australia should be a credit to the Commonwealth.

Mr. Bridge then introduced Mr. W. O. Bridge, who said that the time had come when the people of Western Australia should unite for the establishment of a State University. He said that the universities of Western Australia should be a credit to the Commonwealth.

Mr. Bridge then introduced Mr. W. O. Bridge, who said that the time had come when the people of Western Australia should unite for the establishment of a State University. He said that the universities of Western Australia should be a credit to the Commonwealth.

Mr. Bridge then introduced Mr. W. O. Bridge, who said that the time had come when the people of Western Australia should unite for the establishment of a State University. He said that the universities of Western Australia should be a credit to the Commonwealth.

Mr. Bridge then introduced Mr. W. O. Bridge, who said that the time had come when the people of Western Australia should unite for the establishment of a State University. He said that the universities of Western Australia should be a credit to the Commonwealth.

Mr. Bridge then introduced Mr. W. O. Bridge, who said that the time had come when the people of Western Australia should unite for the establishment of a State University. He said that the universities of Western Australia should be a credit to the Commonwealth.

Mr. Bridge then introduced Mr. W. O. Bridge, who said that the time had come when the people of Western Australia should unite for the establishment of a State University. He said that the universities of Western Australia should be a credit to the Commonwealth.