Advertiser 30th June.

The University council has accepted the Way memorial committee endowment of the "Dr. Edward Willis Way lectureship on gynaecology." The lectureship has been established to perpetuate the memory of the late Dr. E. W. Way.

Ad. 30th June 1902.

Sir Frederick Bridge and Sir Hubert Parry, the examiners of exercises, submitted for the degree of doctor of music, have reported to the University council that they consider the work of Mr. E. Harold Davies, Mus. Bac., should pass. The examiners stated that the exercise written by Mr. Davies was well up to the standard of English universities.

Register 30th June 1902.

RECOGNITION FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE.

The Registrar of the University of Adelaide has received a communication from the secretary of the Institution of Electrical Engineers, London, stating that his council has resolved as follows:—"The fact that a student of the University of Adelaide has obtained his B.Sc. degree, and has passed through the electrical engineering course, may be considered as sufficient evidence of training, and, provided that he is otherwise a desirable candidate, he may be considered eligible for the 'associate-ship.' The members of the council of the University at their meeting on Friday expressed their pleasure at this recognition of the work of the University, and directed that a letter of thanks be written to the secretary of the institution.

Register 1st July 1902.

The University Council at their meeting on Friday were presented with a copy of a new work on "Jurisprudence," by Professor Salmon, the professor of law at the University. A high opinion of the merits of the book was expressed, and the council directed that their thanks be conveyed to Professor Salmon with an expression of their satisfaction that such an excellent book had been produced by one of the professors.
