CENTRE FORMED FOR GAWLER.

A public meeting called by advertisement was held in the Institute Club Room on Monday, July 30. The President of the Institute (Mr. G. Hall) called the meeting to order and the readers of the Institute (Mr. C. H. Hodgkinson) welcomed the participants.

Mr. Hodgkinson spoke effectually and very lustily. He said that the new centre would be of the greatest good. He pointed out that the centre would be of the greatest good. He pointed out that the centre would be of the greatest value to the community.

The meeting was adjourned.

INTER-UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL AND LACROSSE.

Until two years ago, the university football teams were not regarded as very formidable. However, the football teams of the University of Adelaide and Melbourne University, one year later, the first inter-university match was played. The Adelaide team, consisting of skilled and experienced players, was led by a former Adelaide player who had been a captain of the University team in 1896.

For the present season, the two teams will meet in connection with the tests in the two higher grades of music and one in the one grade. The University of Melbourne will be represented by the team from Melbourne University.

Piano Forte Recital.

Miss Edith Clapp, who has been regarded as one of the most promising students of the University, gave a recital on Wednesday evening. The program included a series of Scarlatti sonatas, which were received with great applause. The performance was notable for its technical proficiency and interpretative insight. The audience was captivated by her flawless execution of the Scarlatti sonatas.
