The Senior Musical Examination.

To the Editor.

Sir,—In reply to your query respecting the number of candidates who have been rejected in the Senior Musical Examination, I have the honor to state that out of the 107 candidates examined at the New Music Hall, 23 were rejected, and their cases have been brought before the Board, who are now considering their final decision. The examination was conducted by Mr. J. W. Elliott, and the results were published in theAdvertiser of December 6th.

In conclusion, I wish to express my thanks to the examiners for their kind treatment of the candidates and to the public for their kind support.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

J. W. ELLIOTT.

Strathclyde, December 3, 1878.

The Musical Examinations.

To the Editor.

Sir,—The Musical Examinations are being conducted with great success, and the public are taking a lively interest in the results. I hope that the candidates will be satisfied with the arrangement made by the examiners, and that the public will take an active part in the support of the musical causes of the day. The examinations are conducted by Mr. J. W. Elliott, and the results will be published in theAdvertiser of December 6th.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

J. W. ELLIOTT.

Strathclyde, December 3, 1878.

The Junior Musical Examination.

To the Editor.

Sir,—In reply to your query respecting the number of candidates who have been rejected in the Junior Musical Examination, I have the honor to state that out of the 107 candidates examined at the New Music Hall, 23 were rejected, and their cases have been brought before the Board, who are now considering their final decision. The examination was conducted by Mr. J. W. Elliott, and the results were published in theAdvertiser of December 6th.

In conclusion, I wish to express my thanks to the examiners for their kind treatment of the candidates and to the public for their kind support.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

J. W. ELLIOTT.

Strathclyde, December 3, 1878.

The Recent Musical Examinations.

To the Editor.

Sir,—I have found it necessary to suspend the examination of 107 candidates, as the number of candidates who have been rejected is too large to be dealt with in the given space. Therefore, the examination will be resumed at a later date, and the results will be published in theAdvertiser of December 6th.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

J. W. ELLIOTT.

Strathclyde, December 3, 1878.

The University Commencement.

The annual Commencement of the University of Glasgow was held on the 5th day of June, and the proceedings were conducted with great success. The President of the University, Lord Kelvin, delivered an address, and the proceedings were concluded by the speech of the Chancellor, the Right Hon. Charles Darwin, P.R.S., F.R.S., F.R.S., and D.C.L., University of Oxford, President, Vice-President, and Senior Tutor, President of the University of London, and President of the University of Cambridge.

The degree of M.A. was conferred on 107 candidates, and the degrees of B.A. and B.Sc. were conferred on 107 candidates. The proceedings were concluded by the speech of the Chancellor, the Right Hon. Charles Darwin, P.R.S., F.R.S., F.R.S., and D.C.L., University of Oxford, President, Vice-President, and Senior Tutor, President of the University of London, and President of the University of Cambridge.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

J. W. ELLIOTT.

Strathclyde, December 3, 1878.