MUSICAL EXAMINATIONS

To the Editor,

The examination for the University of Adelaide, this year, was definitely established as a public examination, and was conducted on a scale of examinations neither repugnant to the public nor to the student. The public examinations, which have been held in the past, have been conducted in the same manner as the examinations for the University of Adelaide, and have been conducted in a manner that is in harmony with the public examination. The public examinations, which have been held in the past, have been conducted in a manner that is in harmony with the public examination.
