UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.

The examination week was held from Thursday to Tuesday inclusive. The examination was held in the University Library and the rooms for the examination were well furnished with desks and chairs. The students were required to be present at 10 a.m. on each day of the examination and were not allowed to leave until 4 p.m. The examinations were conducted in English and French, and were divided into two parts, morning and afternoon. The subjects covered were Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, and History. The examinations were held in different rooms, and the students were seated at separate desks. The papers were marked by the examiners, and the results were announced the following week. The students who had not passed were allowed to take the examination again at the next examination week.
