The Advertiser
November 6th 1856

Mr. COWBRIDGE did not agree with Mr. WOOD on the question of the merit of the coloured race. He believed that in this case the public merit should be the first consideration, and that the coloured race should be left out of the question.

Mr. FOSTER thought that the question of the merit of the coloured race was a great one, and that it should be decided by the public.

Mr. PUGH said that the coloured race was equal to any other race in merit, and that it should be left out of the question.

Mr. WOOD asked the question as to the merit of the coloured race.
He thought it was a great question, and that it should be decided by the public.

Mr. PUGH said that the coloured race was equal to any other race in
merit, and that it should be left out of the question.

Mr. WOOD said that the coloured race was equal to any other race in merit, and that it should be left out of the question.

Mr. PUGH said that the coloured race was equal to any other race in
merit, and that it should be left out of the question.

Mr. WOOD asked the question as to the merit of the coloured race.
He thought it was a great question, and that it should be decided by
the public.

Mr. PUGH said that the coloured race was equal to any other race in
merit, and that it should be left out of the question.

Mr. WOOD asked the question as to the merit of the coloured race.
He thought it was a great question, and that it should be decided by
the public.

Mr. PUGH said that the coloured race was equal to any other race in merit, and that it should be left out of the question.