The above injunction might have well described the aim of the Emu in all its activities in the past nineteen months. The local committee has, indeed, been working towards the promotion of music in the district, so that it may be a source of enjoyment and culture for all sections of the community. The committee has endeavored to popularize music education, and to increase the standard of appreciation of music among the people.

A special feature of the Emu's activities has been the establishment of a music school, under the able guidance of Mr. J. A. Daniel, who has been appointed as the director of the school. The school has been well received by the people of the district, and the enrolment has steadily increased. The success of the school is largely due to the efforts of Mr. Daniel, who has worked tirelessly to promote the cause of music education.

The Emu has also been active in promoting music events in the district, and has organized several concerts and recitals, which have been well attended. The committee has also taken an active part in the development of music in the schools of the district, and has been instrumental in the establishment of music clubs in the local schools.

The Emu has been successful in its efforts to promote music education in the district, and the committee is confident that the future of music in the district will be bright. The committee looks forward to continuing its efforts in promoting music education, and to ensuring that music remains an integral part of the life of the community.
