of these causes the effect was equally unsatisfactory in an undue tax upon time, patience, and temper. It is noteworthy that in Australasia there are few scientific generalizers who have the power to produce anything otherwise than a strong feeling of abhorrence and disgust at the gross waste of time for the benefit of the few. The committee has been appointed to give us the opportunity to withdraw from our difficulties in the management of the journal, but the results of their labors are not in accord with the expectations of the public. The committee has failed to satisfy the public expectation in the management of the journal, and it is impossible to say whether the public will be satisfied with the results of the committee's labors. It is clear that the committee has failed to satisfy the public expectation in the management of the journal, and it is impossible to say whether the public will be satisfied with the results of the committee's labors.
