CRESWELL SCHOLARSHIPS.

At the meeting of the Council of the University on November 13th, a letter was received from Sir Robert Smith, 1st Viscount Strathcona, enclosing the trust deed of the Cresswell Memorial Fund for the purpose of creating scholarships for the support of students in the interests of the Vice-Chancellor, John Cresswell, the former head of the University. The letter also mentioned the appointment of a committee to consider the terms of the trust deed, and the question of the future of the scholarship was referred for further consideration.

ANNUAL DINNER AT OXFORD.

A correspondent writes:—"The annual dinner given by the Rhodes trustees to the University, was held on November 1st. Lord Balfour presided. At the dinner, the following were present:—Lord Balfour, the President of the University; Mr. Rhodes, the President of the Rhodes Trust; and Lord Rosebery, the Secretary of State for the Colonies. The dinner was held at the Union Club, and was attended by a large number of guests. The speeches were made by Mr. Rhodes, who spoke on the subject of the Rhodes scholarships, and Lord Rosebery, who spoke on the subject of the University. The dinner was a great success, and was attended by a large number of guests."

"GOOD OLD Varsity!"

Science Students' Dinner.

Merry Speciees

Heres, heres the good old Varsity! For old of times and for old of age, The black and white, with all our might, We'll cheer for the good old Varsity!"

Science students, at the Union Club, had their dinner last evening. The black and white, with all their might, they cheered for the good old Varsity."

Some Jokes.

Professor Rennie was in the chair, and supporting him were Professor Chapman, Mr. E. M. D. (the Registrar of the University), and Mr. E. M. D. S. (the Secretary of the University). The dinner was an outstanding success, and the Science students were well entertained. Professor Chapman told some good jokes, and the Science students were well entertained by his amusing stories."

More Humor.

To Mr. G. E. M. D. (the University) "What do you think of my new suit?"

"Well, it looks very nice, but I think you could do with a bigger hat.""

CENSORSHIP.

A correspondent writes:—"The censorship of the universities is a matter of great importance. It is necessary that the government should have the power to prevent the publication of books which are likely to be harmful to the public. This is a matter of great importance, and it is necessary that the government should have the power to prevent the publication of books which are likely to be harmful to the public."

"The Man Who Was Losing.

Mr. B. M. (a famous geologist) was discussing the interesting facts and comments when he submitted:—"The man who is losing—" and then he added, "is the man who was losing—" and then he added, "is the man who was losing—"

Mr. B. M. (a famous geologist) was discussing the interesting facts and comments when he submitted:—"The man who is losing—" and then he added, "is the man who was losing—" and then he added, "is the man who was losing—"

"The Man Who Was Losing.

Mr. B. M. (a famous geologist) was discussing the interesting facts and comments when he submitted:—"The man who is losing—" and then he added, "is the man who was losing—" and then he added, "is the man who was losing—"

"The Man Who Was Losing.

Mr. B. M. (a famous geologist) was discussing the interesting facts and comments when he submitted:—"The man who is losing—" and then he added, "is the man who was losing—" and then he added, "is the man who was losing—"