CHAIR OF THEOLOGY

FAVOURED BY CONGREGATIONALISTS.

At Thursday’s session of the Congregational Church, the project of the establishment of a Theological Chair at the University of London was discussed. The meeting was addressed by Dr. J. Kirkby, who moved—That this Assembly... The Chair was supported by a resolutionmoved by Mr. J. Kirkby, that the establishment of a Theological Chair should be made conditional upon the provision of funds adequate to support it. The Chair would be endowed by a donation of £20,000 made by Mr. J. Kirkby, and the remaining funds would be raised by subscription. The meeting was adjourned.

FORESTY DEPARTMENT

NEW INSTRUCTOR

Mr. H. S. Corbin, B.Sc., arrived in Adelaide last week, to take up the position of Assistant Inspector in the Forest Department. Mr. Corbin has been associated with the Forestry Commission in the United States for the past four years, and has gained valuable experience in forest management. He is well recommended for the position, and his appointment is likely to be a valuable asset to the Department.

EDUCATION COMMISSION

The members of the Education Commission met at Parliament House on Wednesday morning to discuss the future of the public school system. It was agreed that the commission would continue its work and that a report would be submitted to the government in the near future.

WOMEN LAWYERS

In the Assembly on Thursday afternoon, Mr. J. Kirkby said that on Tuesday, he would introduce a bill for the protection of women lawyers. The bill would give women the right to practice law and would set certain conditions for the admission of women to the bar. The bill was well received by the assembled audience.
