Mr. Denny—All other universities have colleges within their grounds, and it should be the same with this University.

Mr. Young—It was very difficult to say whether the University should be charged with the wages of the students or should be charged a certain sum for teaching the students.

The last statement was adopted for the first time, and an agreement was made between the University and the Government for the teaching of the students.