DEPUTATION TO THE PREMIER.

On Thursday morning Mr. Ponder, M.P., presented a deputation to the Premier (Hon. J. Vernooy), and asked that sums of money should be provided for building new schools and for the extension of existing schools.

He could mention the reasons for further extension, which had been under consideration by the Minister for Education and veterinary science, with necessary teachers; additional professional and lectureships; French, German, and Italian, for the benefit of students in studies of agriculture, and for the education of girls; and for the University, the Prince Henry College and the University College.

The Hon. R. Butler said it would be a great gain to the State to have one of the most useful schools in the Southern Hemisphere, and the University was one of the most important institutions in the country.

The Premier said that after the report of the University Board he would have a better idea of what was required.

Mr. Young then mentioned the deputation and congratulated the Premier on his good fortune in the matter, and the Government should be congratulated on the matter, and the Government should be congratulated on the wise and economical way in which they were carrying out the work.

The Premier said that he would have a better idea of what was required after the report of the University Board.
