UNIVERSITY GRADUATES’ SERVICE.

A special service for university graduates and undergraduates was held at Cadogan Hall on Sunday afternoon. There was a full congregation in the church, which was occupied by a considerable number of people who did not know the service had been held in it.

The Rev. J. Temple, M.A., took for his text St. John iv. 24, “Go to the people, and let them know the truth.” That truth, he said, was God’s work and it had to be done to in the world. He was a missionary and he was trying to do his work in the world.

The sermon was delivered by the Rev. W. Temple, M.A., who took for his text St. John iv. 24, “Go to the people, and let them know the truth.” That truth, he said, was God’s work and it had to be done to in the world. He was a missionary and he was trying to do his work in the world.

EMPIRE CONGRESS OF ARTS.

The Vice-Chancellor of the University of London has invited a meeting, with the object of forming a body of Universities and Colleges of the Empire to the meeting of the University Congress of the University of London, on July 11, 1921.

The conference resolved on the formation of an Empire Congress of Arts, which was to be held at the University of London, and to include representatives of all the Universities of the Empire.

The conference decided on the formation of an Empire Congress of Arts, which was to be held at the University of London, and to include representatives of all the Universities of the Empire.

THE ADELAIDE UNIVERSITY.

A meeting of the University was held on Monday evening in the University of South Australia, for the purpose of considering the affairs of the University.

Mr. COOMBE, the President, said the week in Mr. RYAN’s speech was a great event in the history of the University. In the past, the University had been a great success, and it was to be hoped that in the future it would continue to be so.

Mr. COOMBE, the President, said the week in Mr. RYAN’s speech was a great event in the history of the University. In the past, the University had been a great success, and it was to be hoped that in the future it would continue to be so.

WORLD STUDENT CHRISTIAN FEDERATION.

ADDRESS BY REV. W. TEMPLE.

The Rev. W. Temple, M.A., of Oxford, addressed students and others on the work of the Student Christian Federation on Monday evening in the Prince of Wales Theatre at the University of Oxford. The conference of the federation at Oxford last summer, he said, was a great success, and he hoped that it would continue to be so.

The conference of the federation at Oxford last summer, he said, was a great success, and he hoped that it would continue to be so.

In connection with the University Extension Scheme a very successful and well attended meeting was held on Saturday evening, in the Institute, presided over by Mr. Conyngham and Mr. Conyngham, for the purpose of considering the affairs of the University.

Mr. Conyngham expressed himself as being very well satisfied with the way the work of the University was being conducted, and he was glad to say that all the work of the University was being conducted in a satisfactory manner.

A telegram from our correspondent, last night, stated that the University had been visited by a large number of students and that the work of the University was being conducted in a satisfactory manner.

In connection with the University Extension Scheme a very successful and well attended meeting was held on Saturday evening, in the Institute, presided over by Mr. Conyngham and Mr. Conyngham, for the purpose of considering the affairs of the University.

Mr. Conyngham expressed himself as being very well satisfied with the way the work of the University was being conducted, and he was glad to say that all the work of the University was being conducted in a satisfactory manner.

A telegram from our correspondent, last night, stated that the University had been visited by a large number of students and that the work of the University was being conducted in a satisfactory manner.