UNIVERSITY SOCIETY OF COMMERCE, ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the University Society of Commerce was held in the Prince of Wales Theatre at the University on Friday evening, the Patron (Dr. W. Barlow), the President (Mr. J. H. Fowler), Vice-Presidents (Mr. Charles E. Johnston and W. Neill), the Secretary (Mr. G. C. Snaddon), and members of the Council, members, and students.

The President addressed the meeting, and after the reading of the minutes, the President presided throughout the meeting.

The President then read the report of the committee on the arrangements for the next meeting, which was taken in charge by the President.

The report was then referred to the committee, and the committee was instructed to consider the report and to report to the next meeting.

The President then moved the adjournment of the meeting, which was seconded by the Vice-President, and the meeting adjourned.

A. L. LOVER OF EDUCATION.

The Council of the University of Adelaide has received a letter from the Union of New South Wales, requesting that the University of Adelaide should send a representative to the annual meeting of the University Society of Commerce, and that the representative should take part in the discussions, and that the representative should be appointed by the University Council.

The Council of the University of Adelaide has appointed Professor C. D. Barlow as the representative of the University, and the representative will give a detailed report of the proceedings of the annual meeting of the University Society of Commerce.
