ADELAIDE UNIVERSITY.

Adulment debate on the motion of Mr. Ryan, that scholarships should be given to assisting students to continue their studies at the University. The Treasurer complimented Mr. Ryan on his motion, and said it was an excellent one, and that the University would have been more pleased if the motion had been made some time ago.

Mr. Ryan explained that the motion was a continuation of a motion that had been made the previous year, and that the University had been invited to consider the matter again.

The Motion was carried by a large majority.

In June of this year a scheme of scholarships, which had been in operation for the past nine years, was extended to include the State. It was announced that there would be a further extension of the scheme in May next year.

The Treasurer said that the University had made a large number of applications, and that the scheme was now in a much better position than it had been at any time before.

The Motion to extend the scheme was carried by a large majority.

In conclusion, the Treasurer said that the University was now in a much stronger position than it had been at any time before, and that it was confident that the scheme would be successful.

Mr. Ryan said that the scheme was a great blessing to many students, and that it would be a great relief to many of the students who were now attending the University.

The Motion was carried by a large majority.

In conclusion, the Treasurer said that the University was now in a much stronger position than it had been at any time before, and that it was confident that the scheme would be successful.

Mr. Ryan said that the scheme was a great blessing to many students, and that it would be a great relief to many of the students who were now attending the University.

The Motion was carried by a large majority.

In conclusion, the Treasurer said that the University was now in a much stronger position than it had been at any time before, and that it was confident that the scheme would be successful.

Mr. Ryan said that the scheme was a great blessing to many students, and that it would be a great relief to many of the students who were now attending the University.

The Motion was carried by a large majority.

In conclusion, the Treasurer said that the University was now in a much stronger position than it had been at any time before, and that it was confident that the scheme would be successful.

Mr. Ryan said that the scheme was a great blessing to many students, and that it would be a great relief to many of the students who were now attending the University.

The Motion was carried by a large majority.