A VISITING HISTORIAN

LECTURE BY DR. HODGKIN

Before a large audience in the Elder Hall on Tuesday evening Dr. Thomas Hodgkin, F.R.S., the eminent physician, who is visiting Adelaide, delivered an address as guest of the University of South Australia on "History of the Roman Empire and its Lessons for Us."

His Excellency the Governor of South Australia and Lord Mayor were in the chair, and the platform was occupied by Dr. George Frick, R.H.A. (President of the Honourable Society of Artists) and Sir Samuel Vaw, Bart., C.M.G., who introduced the lecturer.

The address was followed by a question and answer period, when Dr. Hodgkin was put to the test by some keenly intelligent audience members. The period was by no means a tedious one, and the questions were well worded and constructed. A large number of the audience members were journalists, and their queries were direct and probing.

Dr. Hodgkin has been a prominent figure in the medical world for many years, and his work has been widely recognized and appreciated.

The address was received with great interest, and the audience was unanimous in its praise of Dr. Hodgkin's oratorical ability and his knowledge of the subject he had chosen to discuss.

The audience was large, and the atmosphere was lively and engaging. The lecturer's delivery was clear and articulate, and his explanations were well structured and easy to follow.

The address was well received, and the audience was unanimous in its praise of Dr. Hodgkin's oratorical ability and his knowledge of the subject he had chosen to discuss.

The audience was large, and the atmosphere was lively and engaging. The lecturer's delivery was clear and articulate, and his explanations were well structured and easy to follow.

The address was well received, and the audience was unanimous in its praise of Dr. Hodgkin's oratorical ability and his knowledge of the subject he had chosen to discuss.

The audience was large, and the atmosphere was lively and engaging. The lecturer's delivery was clear and articulate, and his explanations were well structured and easy to follow.

The address was well received, and the audience was unanimous in its praise of Dr. Hodgkin's oratorical ability and his knowledge of the subject he had chosen to discuss.

The audience was large, and the atmosphere was lively and engaging. The lecturer's delivery was clear and articulate, and his explanations were well structured and easy to follow.

The address was well received, and the audience was unanimous in its praise of Dr. Hodgkin's oratorical ability and his knowledge of the subject he had chosen to discuss.

The audience was large, and the atmosphere was lively and engaging. The lecturer's delivery was clear and articulate, and his explanations were well structured and easy to follow.

The address was well received, and the audience was unanimous in its praise of Dr. Hodgkin's oratorical ability and his knowledge of the subject he had chosen to discuss.