The President of the South Australian branch of the Geographical Society (Mr. W. F. Baillie) was invited to make opening remarks, and he said that the meeting was not only a gathering of men, but also a gathering of men and women, and that the society was an international one. He was pleased to see so many friends present, and that the meeting was very well attended. The meeting was opened by the President, and was followed by a vote of thanks to the President, and the meeting adjourned. The meeting was then adjourned until 2 p.m. for the presentation of the society's silver medal to Mr. W. F. Baillie.

The President then took the chair and said that the society was an international one, and that the meeting was not only a gathering of men, but also a gathering of men and women. He was pleased to see so many friends present, and that the meeting was very well attended. The meeting was opened by the President, and was followed by a vote of thanks to the President, and the meeting adjourned. The meeting was then adjourned until 2 p.m. for the presentation of the society's silver medal to Mr. W. F. Baillie.

The President then took the chair and said that the society was an international one, and that the meeting was not only a gathering of men, but also a gathering of men and women. He was pleased to see so many friends present, and that the meeting was very well attended. The meeting was opened by the President, and was followed by a vote of thanks to the President, and the meeting adjourned. The meeting was then adjourned until 2 p.m. for the presentation of the society's silver medal to Mr. W. F. Baillie.