WHY REMOVE IT?

WILFUL WASTE OF MONEY

When the position of Governor of South Australia on a vacancy occurring is offered, the Governor, without the slightest hesitation or reluctance, accepts. The authorities have for a long time been in the habit of making the Governor's salary payable for the whole year, whether he be in South Australia or not. This is an unjustifiable mode of action. The Governor is required to live in Adelaide, and is called upon to attend all public functions, and in case of an emergency, to be ready for immediate service. He is also required to attend the Legislature, and to reside in the Government house in Melbourne. This is a most unreasonable and unjustifiable mode of action. A Mania for Buying Land.

The Government recently have been buying land for public buildings and institutions. The railway department is in process of transferring to its own hands the two properties which it has purchased for the purpose of building the Government House. The properties are to be transferred to the Government House, and the Government House is to be built on the new site.
