An influential deputation waited upon the Vice-Chancellor this morning, with a request that the Governing Body of the University should be asked to support a special appeal for funds for the Chamber of Commer (sic) and that they might be able to take part in the proposed expedition to the Antarctic. The request was granted.

The Delegation was composed of Dr. Mawson, Sir T. H. Clement, Mr. J. W. M. H. M. M., Mr. J. P. D. M., Mr. J. G. M., and Mr. J. H. M., and represented the University and the Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Mawson said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.

The Governor of the University, Dr. Mawson, said that the expedition was one of the most important ever undertaken, and that it would be a matter of great satisfaction to the University to be able to take part in it.