CONSERVATORY CONCERT.

The first Conservatory concert of the present season was given at the Elder Hall on Monday evening. The programme embraced vocal and instrumental items, and the quality of the work throughout was remarkable. The solo item of the concert was the famous song by George Handel in "Sona in F."

Young artists displayed skill and understanding, and the performance was well received. Miss Lisette Lucas was the soloist, and her performance was a triumph. She sang with great sweetness and purity, and her interpretation of the song was admirable. The audience was much pleased with her singing and was enthusiastic in their applause.

The concert programme also included instrumental items. Miss Minnie Haskell gave a brilliant performance on the piano, playing "Sonsa in G minor." Her playing was characterized by great skill and expression. She played with a wonderful sense of rhythm and phrasing, and her interpretation of the music was splendid.

The concert was a great success and was well attended. The performers displayed great musical ability and the audience was much pleased with the performance. The concert was a fitting conclusion to the first of the season's concerts at the Elder Hall.
