UNIVERSITY EXTENSION LECTURES

Extension lectures will be given at the University during the winter by Professor J. H. Jackson, An introduction to Philosophy. Professor Jackson will be in three lectures on "The Theory of Mind and the Mind-Body Problem," dealing with the language of "Hume," the second with the characteristics of mind, and the third with the teaching of the play. The play will be "Henderson," by Richard III. A.B. "D." "Athena" will be produced at 8 p.m. on Wednesdays and Thursdays, which will be given by the University Players.

UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS

Executive Council on Wednesday approved an amendment to the law of the house of academic affairs, which provides that a student who is absent from a class without leave may be punished by the imposition of fines, up to a maximum of £5.

ELDER Conservatory Concerts

The session will open on May 7 at 8 p.m. at the Elder Conservatory. There will be 12 concerts throughout the year.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY

APPEAL FOR £2,000.

LONDON, May 2.

The appeal for the subscription of £2,000 for the purpose of strengthening the endowment and supporting the Cambridge University Fund. He declared that altogether a capital sum of £1,000,000, apart from any personal expenditure, might not be enough; and there are not more than fifty students who can be inducted into the student body without any expense. The appeal is to the public for the benefit of the students, and it is an appeal to the world of science and learning for the benefit of the students and for the benefit of the university.

COMPULSORY VACCINATION.

LONDON, May 1.

Mr. John Barns (President of the Local Government Board) has introduced a Bill to enable the Board of Health to compel all persons to vaccinate against smallpox. The Bill is to be called the Vaccination Bill, and it is expected to be passed through the House of Commons without much difficulty.